This site is 100% Legit. I know it is new, but all sites were new once.

Also, when you login with your steam account, we get absolutely no information regarding your account. You login with the Steam API, meaning you login with steams website.

Too all who doubts this, yes. We are actually giving away a free karambit knife. Please do not pm me, asking for proofs.. I dont bother sending proof to 100 people. Thank you.

I can confirm that the site is legit and I don't know why more people aren't getting in on this contest.

News: We have now implemented the Economy system. We have done this to ensure our users a riskfree and successfull trade. IF you get scammed, we will be able to refund your money. You must have valid proofs of course.

UPDATE: If you invite your friends (with your ref link or through steam) you may choose 1 more number!
