=====FAQ=====

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Q - How do you spend the profit you earn?

A - We use 75% of all profit to pay our support team and purchase more accounts for the generator. The remaining 25% is used as obviously profit, and for funding future projects.

Q - Do you add accounts when the old ones die?

A - Yes that's why 75% of our money goes to purchasing more support members to run the project and account purchasing.

Q - Do you provide support for your product?

A - Yes we provide live user support.

Q - Do you plan on adding more accounts to this product?

A - Yes, we plan on adding more accounts to this product, in fact we take account generator, and resolver requests.

Q - How do you decide who to hire for your product?

A - We pretty much only hire friends, or experienced/trusted HF members.

Q - What do I do if my product is functioning as I wanted it to?

A - Look under the Support Spoiler

Q - Who's the leader of this project?

A - MrDarkExplains is the leader of this project, Kronus just manages the thread layout.
