Quote:FERGUSON, MO (KPLR) – Around midnight two police officers were shot near the Ferguson Police Department. St. Louis County Police Chief Jon Belmar held a press conference just before 2 a.m., Thursday morning at Barnes Hospital. According to Belmar, they were standing with a group of officers in front of the police department on South Florissant Road.

The chief stated a 32-year-old Webster Groves police officer with 5-years of service was shot in the face. The second officer, a 41-year-old, 14-year veteran of the St. Louis County Police Department, was shot in the shoulder. They are expected to survive.

He further stated that he believed the shooter was "somehow embedded in that group of folks."

Man that's nice.

I'm glad that it's happening.

I hope one day someone walks in your house and shoots your dad in the face, rapes your mother and then sodomizes you with a blow torch and a tire iron.

Then after that I can say "man that's nice, I'm glad that it's happening" because I sure can't wait for the martial law that's coming since people are deciding to target officers that haven't done anything. I mean hell maybe all the cops should just start blasting people like people think all of them do because then we would actually have a reason to hate them all.
