Found out that this isn't allowed. Have to close the thread :/

Hello everyone, I'm not very known around here but I'm starting to become "active".

As the title says I'm going to be giving away a few Crunchyroll Accounts.

My limit is 100 accounts, it should last for quite a few replies.

All the accounts I'm giving away is of course private and will not be shared to anyone else. SQLi'd the combolists and cracked them myself.

To receive an account, please just post here and I'll PM you an account when I'm online.
(If I'm breaking any rules here, please let me know ASAP)

I'm new but I'd like one, I already use adblock so I guess it doesnt matter though. Everything I seem to watch is finished, besides One Piece and Naruto.

Why not.

I would like to try an account so I know if what people say about this service is right or wrong. Pretty please.

You aren't to give these out. I suggest you edit and close this thread.
