Welcome to Titans' Tetris Tournament!

Titans' Tetris is fun new way for you to earn Tittens, the official currency of the Titans group, all by playing the classic retro arcade game, Tetris! We will be hosting a forum-wide tournament to determine who is the grand master of Tetris and offering prizes in the form of Tittens. We will be using www.tetrisfriends.com.

To sign-up for the tetris tournament, please fill out this Google Form:
<http://goo.gl/forms/KZISFv6OsW>

Once you've done that, you're all set! Keep your eyes open for an official announcement thread in the coming days. Until then, feel free to post any questions or comments you have. Help spread the word by wearing our signature and telling your friends about it!

F.A.Q.What are Tittens? And how do I earn them?Tittens are a playful currency Titans have developed and they are used as rewards for participating in events we host. To earn Tittens, all you have to do is participate in one of the many events we host and earn them.

What can I do with Tittens?With Tittens, you can access the Titans shop and purchase prizes with your Tittens. Prizes range from silly things to things such as awards, group memberships, cash prizes, and more!

How will this event work?We will be taking sign ups for this event for a specific amount of time and entering all of those who signed up in a tournament bracket via challonge.com. If you back out last minute, you will be DQ'ed and the player you were supposed to play would take the victory for that match.

When will the Tittens shop open up?For those who participated in our casino, you'd know that we opened up our shop a couple days after the event. This time, we are not doing that. You'll hold onto your Tittens and in a month or so we will open the shop to the public.

How do I check how many Tittens I have?You can do so by visiting this link. Once you're there, click the sign in button and you'll be redirected to a list. There you can either look through the immediate list or search your name in the search bar.

Will you be inviting the community inside your group to participate like you did with the casino?No, we will not be doing that. We will putting this thread and keeping the entire event public for all to see.

We haven't decided on the exact amounts just yet, it depends on how many play because everyone will earn Tittens. No losers :P

First place will win much more than the rest, 2nd will win more than the rest(besides 1st), and 3rd will win more than the rest(besides 2nd and 1st).

Everyone else will win a small amount.

Example:

1st -- 5,000 TTN

2nd -- 2,500 TTN

3rd -- 1,500 TTN

Everyone Else -- 500 TTN

A pokemon showdown tournament is a probable upcoming event by another group. That's what I was told/heard. ?

Dean Winchester? - March 16, 2015, 2:22 pm

Wait matches already started?

It says I'm not playing against anybody on the challonge what does that mean ?

It means you got a bye because of the tournament size. You'll be playing the winner of the match before yours.

Legion. - March 16, 2015, 5:56 pm

You guys really should do a Cards Against Humanity Tournament. That would be soooo awesome.

Blue Shadow - March 16, 2015, 6:16 pm

I wonder why they made the gaming section? Guess it is not needed anymore.

Legion. - March 16, 2015, 6:19 pm

Maybe I'll make a Pokemon Showdown or Cards Against Humanity tournament. That would be soooo cool! But it wouldn't be under Titans. iHydra, willing to let me in so I can make a tournament?

Astute - March 17, 2015, 8:55 pm

I'll signup tomorrow morning seeing as I'm on my phone at the moment. Posting as a reminder.
