My favorite show is hands down Burn Notice and my favorite episode is Season 7 Episode 2 "Forget me not". The episode gave me chills and it was just amazing.

One of my all-time favourite TV shows would have to be The IT Crowd. As for my favourite episode out of the show, I would have to go with "The Work Outing", which is from season two, episode one.

I found it hilarious from start to finish, as did I with the entire show. I would recommend giving the show a watch if you haven't already.

Favorite show right now is Grimm. Such an addicting show, can't even pick a favorite episode, all of them make you watch more.

The Wire
Suits
Game of Thrones
Top Gear

Watching House of Cards now. After the first episodes its good.

I've been going back to the 2002-2006 TV series "Ultimate Force" it is about the SAS (Special Air Service) and some missions, although it's a drama and not factual it is still pretty cool

My favorite tv show is Arrow and my favorite episode was the one right before the break. It was insane and left a crazy cliff hanger.

Currently love game of thrones.

Best show I saw was Lost, after watching the final episode and following it for so long that was a real emotional ending. Beautiful. Also was lucky to play a part in helping to film it (it was for an advance videography class in high school) and living in Hawaii; seeing familiar places.
