Thread: Allowed to sell Google Adwords, bing codes?

GamerBoy1499 - March 17, 2015, 9:37 pm

I just have a nice business opportunity of selling these codes, but Im in two minds as to is it allowed or not. Please advice me.

EDIT: They are $100 google adwords coupons codes and bing advert codes.

I don't think you can sell free stuff.

Anyways, I want to see answer too...

You can even get $125 on AdWords and $300 on Bing for free.

There isn't a rule against selling these codes, however I'd wait for a staff or mentors input on these.

I don't think it should be an issue, since they can be sold on several IM forums.

What are your prices btw?

I couldn't find any rules that pinpoint this exact product, but there is a ruling on Gift Cards that tend to the same purpose of the coupon codes you have. Gift cards as it is are disallowed, so I would assume that this would also not be allowed.

You would just have to wait for Staff/Admin clarification to know for sure.
