Thread: OMC is now listed on Bittrex

My magic has worked. Happy trading and have fun.

Make sure you use Bittrex when trading with omnicoin. We need as much volume as possible on there.

brian188246 - March 18, 2015, 12:01 am

This is great news for OMC, hopefully now things can get rolling with it again (plugin, auction, 3pic/omc award)

VRUMM - March 18, 2015, 12:04 am

This website has a really nice layout. Good job noob.

SIM-2015410 - March 18, 2015, 12:04 am

Awesome news Crypto Miner! Thank you very much. I hope you can help with Cryptsy, because so far we have done a lot with no success yet.

So we as a community need to use Bittrex on a daily basis and get things flowing. It took a lot of time and effort to get listed on there, I never knew the owner so it was hard in that respect..I hope you all enjoy and now trade with ease and comfort. Bittrex is a secured and official exchange, only a fraction behind Cryptsy, so it won't hurt for a month or so...

Thanks.

Am I right on the price 1 OMC = 0.05 btc = $14?

?BowmanBot? - March 18, 2015, 12:15 am

Nice job mate, needed this after the shit with allcrypt.

Beuase there is no volume at the moment. Don't worry that price will drop instantly when there are buy orders.

Anyways its a good news for the omnicoin community

Omniscient - March 18, 2015, 12:52 am

Fantastic news. I'll be putting up some OMC for sale asap.

adampelletgun - March 18, 2015, 12:57 am

Thanks for all the work you've put into getting us on exchanges Crypto.

The whole community appreciates it ;)

Cameron - March 18, 2015, 3:16 am

Great news! Thanks for all the hard work you've done to get us listed.

Mikavv - March 18, 2015, 4:13 am

That's great!

To bad I lost all my omc due to the allcrypt thing.

Mix - March 18, 2015, 5:50 am

This is perfect! I can start selling again and making double my money! woohoo! cheers crypto miner! and the rest of the team for this work cant wait to be muti listed as we should get listed at cryptsy mrnapolean1 - March 18, 2015, 6:53 am

YES!

I have already registered an account and will buy OMC shortly....

webdev77 - March 18, 2015, 7:29 am

Do we have to upload identity verification for bittrex or is it like allcrypt and btc-e where you just need an email and password?

So far Its like Allcrypt. Username and Password are the only things needed.

Aceman - March 18, 2015, 7:49 am

I love you Crypto Miner, great job on getting us on another exchange!

Raoul Duke - March 18, 2015, 8:07 am

I have some difficulty registering on their website. I've enter my email address and no registration email have been send (I'm waiting till more than one hour)

I've enter my email address and no registration email have been send (I'm waiting till more than one hour)I apparently had an account with one email and attempted to reset the password on two occasions, 15 minutes apart. I registered with a new email and it sent me the verification email immediately after.

It was a missing typo from my part forgot one letter in my email address facepalm
Ready to trade ?

Quiver - March 18, 2015, 8:38 am

Hell yeah! Great job man! Here we go!

MysticParadox - March 18, 2015, 9:00 am

We need it on a many exchanges as we can get it on to make it as popular as possible:)

No. Not when we're are on a popular altcoin exchange now. People from other forums and other traders will notice this new listing and it'll get popular on its own from 24hr volumes. We've already got some idiot mining like a nutter because we've been listed on Bittrex.

Aceman - March 18, 2015, 9:23 am

Going to be selling some OMC later on today when I get a chance. For the time being I have to study though.

rogelio11 - March 18, 2015, 10:52 am

Awsome, Thanks so much Crypto Miner! :D

i will bookmark that website once i plan to exchange omnicoins for bitcoins

FRANKIE - March 18, 2015, 10:56 am

Incredible, I did not know this until today. Great work & undoubtedly a great personal accomplishment for the OMC team.

I just noticed it was back up. I guess they were just doing some kind of maintenance. Would have been nice to get a little message about what it was about though haha.

Raoul Duke - March 18, 2015, 12:33 pm

We are on Bittrex since less than a day I think it's normal if they have a few tweak to do ^^

Just had confirmation via email. It was a wallet reboot, multiple wallets were effected. All good in the hood. ?

Abraham Lincoln - March 18, 2015, 1:00 pm

Hm, withdrew my OMC nearly an hour ago and it still hasn't processed.

My BTC withdraw took only a few seconds.

EDIT: Made a new withdrawal and it was nearly instant. The old one is still stuck though :/ It probably got messed up with the wallet restart.

Not without them updating their site, which probably wont happen as the owner has left the forum.

And could someone make a similar site to omc-rates?

So payment in OMC is possible now?

Thanks, really nice lay-out too. Was Payivy based on omc-rates? Or can I still accept Omnicoin payments through there?

Last time I checked Paylvy ran off of CoinPayments like HF does, which is up and running just fine.

Fizure - March 22, 2015, 11:03 pm

the minimum volume there is 0.20 btc so it doesnt get remove is not that much so yeah good to see OMC there Lets do some trades now!

Cameron - March 22, 2015, 11:23 pm

I'll be selling a decent amount over the following days to hopefully increase the volume a bit.

Magicmann - March 22, 2015, 11:25 pm

We have more volume than ever but the price actually seems to be going down. People are dumping on the sell orders and not placing buy orders and being patient.

yeah it seem that everybody is dumping instead we all should hold and put up more buy orders than sell orders the catch here is to get to the first page once we 1st page OMC we'll get stronger than ever! not only HF member are gonna be trading but other community's as well...

MusleHF - March 24, 2015, 5:26 pm

Just threaded some BTC for OMC on Bittrex. HQ service

Hope omnicoin will grow with the future !

What are you talking about? You don't have that amount of bitcoins so your order hasn't been verified..hence the reason the percentage hasn't increased.
