Omg What an amazing chapter.. I think Law isn't dead because in the end of the chapter he said "Listen up Straw hat-ya!!!" I think he's gonna die in the end the arc but i feel like he's gonna use the Ope Ope no Mi on luffy.

What did you guys think of the chapter?

I think it's much bigger than that. I think Luffy will refuse and or ask for it to be used on someone else. Or Law already told Luffy about it and they made a deal on who it would be used on already. Or this might be a little to much... he pretends to use it on Luffy.... and later once doly is defeated the healing lil princess will heal law.

But yeah I love One Piece... I really wish the Anime didn't suck so much..... It's extremely extremely slow...and the overall quality is crap. I wish another studio took over. But hey I still watch it every week.
