Omniscient - March 20, 2015, 3:58 pm

Do members have interest in a Darkcoin award at HF? Litecoin is shit now. BTC is too expensive. I think DOGE is passe. And yes I know we have the OMC award but I'm wondering if members have interest with a Darkcoin award?

Darkcoin has risen very well this past year and it's now top 5 coin with a market cap above DOGE.

<http://coinmarketcap.com/currencies/darkcoin/>

Here is a couple potential award image.

brian188246 - March 20, 2015, 3:59 pm

Come on.. of course the award whores will get any award. It can legit be a picture of cow crap and people will pay for it.

weazedog - March 20, 2015, 4:00 pm

Just make the LTC award so you aren't able to get it & replace it with the darkcoin award.

AliasIlias - March 20, 2015, 4:00 pm

The last design looks pretty cool, also it's a nice idea I'll see how it works out!

Unturned - March 20, 2015, 4:00 pm

Inb4 Omni make more moneh from award collectors

Eddie - March 20, 2015, 4:00 pm

Yes I would love to see this as an award but I prefer the 2nd image tho.

dragonhuman - March 20, 2015, 4:00 pm

Designs could be improved a bit, but I'm sure people would be interested in new award.

Dr.Penguin - March 20, 2015, 4:01 pm

Yes, please. I want to get a dark coin wallet just for this.

I like this one:

[img]<http://x.hackforums.net/uploads/awards/darkcoin.png>[/img]

G????????f????s? - March 20, 2015, 4:02 pm

I'd definitely be in this. Sounds like fun and might me first award :D

well then - March 20, 2015, 4:02 pm

the last one looks cool, but I'll attempt to make one and post it on the thread when I'm home.

Trenchguns - March 20, 2015, 4:04 pm

I think I'd prefer it over litecoin def. But if you do take this, what will happen to the other coin awards?

Omniscient - March 20, 2015, 4:07 pm

Quote:Just make the LTC award so you aren't able to get it & replace it with the darkcoin award. I was actually very much considering doing that.

Also added a 3rd design which I just made myself.

But is anyone using or collecting Darkcoin? It's exploding right now and trade volume is up dramatically.

Duck On Quack - March 20, 2015, 4:07 pm

Never even knew this coin existed till you posted this thread, looks good though.

Dragnite - March 20, 2015, 4:07 pm

I would be interested in this award, the 2nd design looks pretty nice.

Radar7 - March 20, 2015, 4:07 pm

I would buy it. I think we should go for it! Also, I like the first symbol better.

I like the 3rd icon for it tbh, looks nice.

The Judge - March 20, 2015, 4:09 pm

I'll buy that award right away. I really like the third icon.

Juice WRLD - March 20, 2015, 4:09 pm

I've never heard of this currency, but sounds like it could work. The middle one is the best looking.

I am honestly so confused and lost on why there is so many of these coins. Do they all just come from BTC? Or are they separate or what?

Shxtdown - March 20, 2015, 4:12 pm

Sounds cool, would we still be able to purchase the other awards?

Envy - March 20, 2015, 4:12 pm

The first one is my favourite, followed by the third. Second is a bit chunky and the third blends in a bit too much with the background colour, just my opinion though.

Cameron - March 20, 2015, 4:12 pm

I'd purchase the award. [img]http://x.hackforums.net/uploads/awards/darkcoin.png[/img] is my favourite.

True. Just look at that Brony award and how many people spent the money to get that.

The Judge - March 20, 2015, 4:15 pm

Howmuch are you planning to make the award Omni?

Gustav. - March 20, 2015, 4:16 pm

Try and make it less look custom, make it have the same familiarity as the other crypto currency awards.

Astute - March 20, 2015, 4:17 pm

I like the first award. It looks really nice.

As for the idea, shoot it would be great to add.

Radar7 - March 20, 2015, 4:21 pm

If this award was implemented how much Darkcoin would it cost?

JoshAllen - March 20, 2015, 4:21 pm

About time I can finally finish my row.

I prefer the second image.

Also, this looks like a pretty good idea !

Webmasters - March 20, 2015, 4:27 pm

I think this is a good idea personally. Helps promote crypto currency, and I think the second looks sexy. :)

Fiber Optics - March 20, 2015, 4:29 pm

In my opinion, there are too many purchasable awards.

Your site, your rules though.

Maybe that's the solution. Do a limited-edition of say...50 or 100 Darkcoin awards before the name change.

Viral Dragon - March 20, 2015, 4:58 pm

Eh, I wouldn't have any use for this award (then again, I don't exactly go for awards do I? Lol). It just seems like it'll be another vanity award, I kind of see this going the same path as LTC. It started out strong, it was a nice big thing, it was booming, and slowly it just dropped.

-Viral.

I guess the second one fits the site the most.

Not a fan of it tho

beslim - March 20, 2015, 5:15 pm

Let me know what you guys think.

lucky. - March 20, 2015, 5:19 pm

I don't know of any altcoins really, so this was news to me. Personally I'm not interested in Darkcoin at all, but it does have a value like Litecoin had (Still low but getting there).

+mK - March 20, 2015, 5:43 pm

I can't say, as I don't work personally with crypto-currency, however, the design of the award is pretty bad. For example, the second design, the bottom of the circle has a few pixels sticking out, making it not a perfect circle.

xVulnerable - March 21, 2015, 1:37 am

BTC too expensive? Bitch please, was double the price when I got it! ?

DLT. - March 21, 2015, 2:16 am

IMHO, i think we have a good set amount of coin purchases right now. Litecoin maybe shit at this moment in time, but its still a great investment to hold and accept them on HF. Same with Dogecoin.

If anything i would save those award spaces for Omnicoin purchases. (Custom awards, maybe). Just my two cents. Or maybe add a Crypto-Currency enthusiast award ?

Server97 - March 21, 2015, 2:38 am

Nope. Just another chance for you to earn lots of money from award whores.
