Do not deal with <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=562017>

He is impersonating Diiaz.

Diiaz, will be addressing this tomorrow, he has gone off for the night, but I have just alerted him about it. Just avoid dealing with him for steam items. He is middle man scamming.

Thank you.

This is an invalid scam report.

Collect evidence and post all you got with details.

If you read the reason, it is not a scam report, it is an attempted scam and the user Diiaz will be explaining this. I am just giving out a warning before he posts his reasons so users don't get scammed.

You should have posted this in the Marketplace Discussions section with a prefix "community alert".

Very straightgorward.

Good luck.

Good luck.Stop being a fucking asshole and just tell him that he put it in the wrong section. Damn

OP You put this in the deal dispute section when this should be in the marketplace discussion with the prefix: "Community Alert".
