Thread: About that time

Gustav. - March 22, 2015, 8:34 pm

Ok so my HF story and some-feedback.

I started HF trying to find on some Runescape hacks, don't believe me? Look through my threads. Anyways.... after some thinking I realized being a hacker would be cool and I decided to pursue it but then everybody on here is one. I then switched it up and wanted to do something else that actually helped others, not take from others. So after that I went to the WHH section and started posting non-stop and of course met some good people along the way Corso, Aura, Phyber, #Thunder, Wires, En1gma, and ABCD and some other members that I don't remember.... What we were doing together was basically cleansing the WHH section from it's current state which was all corruption. No one basically gave a shit about that section except for us, that group. I looked up to Paradoxum, T3H Hack3r, and the whole MRT group and followed their footsteps on becoming a White hat, which I ended up being. After some time, getting to know how things worked here Paradoxum released the MRT recruitment, being myself I went and applied. I made it of course, but I couldn't keep up with the schedule and their routine it was shit, no wonder why it got deleted (Kappa). What I basically did after was kept up with my friends, Corso (he applied and was in the course, and stayed but left later on), #Thunder, ABCD, and En1gma (Aura wasn't in the picture yet) later on Aura was found lurking and asking for help on how we actually knew this much on computers, but little did he know that he was gifted at the subject and knew a lot more than he thought. I gained my White hat helper award during the time after months go by Corso has left HF for good, the group has divided. We went on opposite ends, I went inactive for a bit leaving Aura by himself to clean out the White hat section. After being back from my inactivity, I come back and see that the section was being handled by the man himself Aura, and so I left it like that. I didn't want to intervene with Aura's affairs. I stepped in a bit to guide him, but he knew what he was doing.

Moving on,

A little about my account and yes I am black. Just had to point that out unless someone was confused. I obtained my awards by doing stupid shit. Turkey came from asking Omni to remove my gift award, because hey I didn't like the looks of it. A day later I messaged him again asking him to remove it, but for $25 this time (the worth of the award) and he then gave me the awardwhore, was actually funny because I wanted to request a award removal (Snorlax, Kappa) not actually ask for one ?. As for the Asswipe I fell for this members signature that labeled "Ban, repfucked, and IP hash". I reported it immediately to Omni expecting to get some kind of reward, but later on I find out that what I reported was fake and I tried deleting that message that I sent to Omni. It was too late and Omni had already read it and later along the day I received the asswipe award. When I clicked that members signature it led to the /shell.php page which said "Does it feel like shit being a skid?" So I thought it was Omni's doing, he's known for playing a few tricks.. Drunk came from proving to Omni that I was inebriated. I won't disclose anything else about it. One more thing, I actually won the MOTM but was later disqualified by Froggy for asking someone to nominate me for the award (Not even when the poll thread was up) I won by 111 votes, Cryptic had about 98 and was disqualified too for 'asking for votes' according to Froggy, leaving Baghead to win it. (I would have given you the link but Omni deleted the section, some members might remember this and will probably vouch)

Furthermore,

HF is 'alright'. I used to picture HF as a utopia when I first joined, but don't get it wrong, HF is pretty bad ass. HF was the first forum I joined, and the only one that basically stuck to me, the activity is what made that happened. Omni you did a great thing here, you made something happen and you stuck with it. DON'T YOU EVER TRY AND SELL HF or else... (Kappa). I can't imagine on how much time and effort you put into HF everyday. Reading those hundreds of messages everyday would've killed me by now. God damn sir. Sadly, there is always that part of feedback where I have to rant on what's wrong on here. For example, members that actually have done what it took to get this and that isn't getting any recognition because some other member with a bigger wallet has more paper to acquire your attention Omni, leaving that other member who's done what I took to get that award in the dust. I understand donating is showing respect for what Omni has done but some people can't due to whatever the reason maybe or they're just being stingy as fuck... I know I would if I could, but I have to take care of my mother (You'll know why later on). Another thing is that Omni keeps us in the dark, doesn't really communicate with us on what's going to happen next and whatnot. Updates you promised us are fairly late from the actual release date you & us expected to be released. (But, I can't complain, you have a life to live and a family to attend to). Help documents need to be updated, please get some writ3r on this, add those new rules/policies that are on threads onto the fine print, please. Everything else on HF is fine, ranks are fair no problem with those. Groups are a fun way to interact with others around here. Staff do whatever it is to keep the site clean, I've never had a trouble with a staff member, so that's good. I also think that I've only received about 2 warnings the whole entire time that I was here.

Additionally,

Juicy part starts here, my 6 month vacation banned was a derp up. I wanted to go on a 3 month vacation... accidentally clicking the 6 month instead (Don't ask me how). Later on the day Bull brought up a scam report on me which was $715 and many thought that I was leaving HF or that I was compromised, but I wasn't. Aura informed me on what was happening after my departure and as a great friend he is, he decided to help me on getting it resolved. Literally 30 minutes later, not even a hour of my vacation ban the scam report was solved. I'm no scammer, and I sure wasn't going nowhere. The whole purpose of my vacation ban was to take care of my mother which is terminally ill with breast cancer as of last year, and still till this day is going through diagnosis (Omni you should know, when I informed you of it you gave me a +10 lol). During those 6 months, I of coursed took care of my mother like the good child she raised and I explored life a bit more and other forum sites (they weren't as fun as HF). I kept close with my HF friends on Skype, they missed me and I missed them. God damn how those 6 months were long. And Omni, I wrote to you many times via contact form and had no avail to shortening my vacation ban which was heartbreaking LOL, but I guess it was that time to take a break.

Conclusion,

I'm back now been back for like a month now and I ain't going nowhere. Haven't been repfucked yet nor banned for breaking a policy and I'd like to keep it that way. Right now i'm exploring new things.. just getting into marketing a bit on here, exploring new things maybe even some BH down the road, who knows? HF has been great thus far and i'd like for it to be the same until whatever happens. This was my feedback, thank you to whomever that kept on reading.

O and I couldn't forget about the shoutouts to some members that I talk to now and met throughout the time that I've been here.
