Liek I said he is probably working for the Feds. I heard from a friend that knew this guy that figured out the secret of counterfeiting Xbox games. Well he got caught and he had to work for the Feds for 3 years as a security analyst. After that he got a big shot job at a tech company.

Dorrance - March 24, 2015, 11:01 pm

I think bro actually wants a cookie, like you get no clout for getting caught.
