If you read what Omni said, it's gone if harassment continues.

I don't think it will.

I've been in the group since Instinct, and it's always been mostly fun and harmless.

Yeah everyone knows, he opened the group to the community. You can literally join Nightfall by going to your User-CP and clicking "Join Group." It'll auto-add you. I joined it for the lulz

So what will happen when the group comes out of limbo?

Omni said all the leaders were removed? Do they come back or what? O_o

I think that is up to Vinnie if he wants them added back, but I'm not sure. If they're allowed to be leaders of the group again, as I am sure they are, then Vinnie will add them back as I don't see him "scamming" them.

It's too bad this happened, especially over such petty things. I hope things get better so that Nightfall isn't closed as a lot of members really like the group. Good luck ?

I hope the group actually doesn't get deleted.

Vinnie is a good guy and I am not saying that to suck his dick.

The cunt is pretty damn funny.

Nightfall is a really awesome group with laid back rules and you don't really have to do ALL this bullshit like assignments n shit to stay in. We also have activity check like every 3 months. Everyone in the group is awesome and funny, they always joke around.
