That's pretty sick looking, the S is kind of hard to read, but I like it. Are you making a font with that style?

Yeah I feel ya, I made that line a little too long connecting them on accident.

And nope, just doing some lettering for fun for a friend.

The first one is a nice logo type thing, S is a too wide by a little or height is too small.

Second is a awesome style but text too unreadable.

I always run into trouble, when I try doing this shit with the "s"...

It always looks weird, because the letter either gets stretched or squeezed in all sorts of weird ways.

I really like that lettering for some reason! :)

Good job on that

No worries it wasn't meant to be a perfect square
