Not trying to trash your sales but you say it's worldwide while it isn't. It also contains SE, which isn't allowed on HF. You also claim you'll refund if it's not working, well, it doesn't work for me because of the country I live in, and you still refuse to refund me. All I can say is DEAL WITH CAUTION!

May I ask in which country you live? You can also PM it to me if you want.

Because I doubt that this will work in my country. I haven't tried it yet, I have just contacted the OP asking if it will work in my country or if I should change something.
