What you guys think of this? Couldn't resist temptation I guess.

I can't blame them to be honest.

They could have done better though.

Translation - March 30, 2015, 11:05 am

Indeed, can't blame them, I maybe would have done the same... But they could have done it smarter.

DOSH - March 30, 2015, 2:07 pm

I think I would of done the same but I would of taking much less than $800k.

Would this count as evidence tampering for the DPR case? Does Ross have a chance for a retrial?

The court system, and the justice system in general is very out of date when it comes to technology.

I wouldn't be surprised if it did get sent to retrial because of that.
