Thread: Dam March was a good month 1800 +

"Betty23" - March 30, 2015, 9:06 pm

I was checking my paypal and I noticed I did quite well this month with certain jobs I had done for people. I will say this is just side jobs I do for people that I will not discuss.

I hope you can get motivation from this if anything unless you made more then I am motivated.

Good work, mate. Keep it up.

Was this on top of the earnings you made for that new TV?

March has been a good month for me too! ?

I got the money for the tv from my actual job because they gave me a bonus and that was the bonus money for the tv, but this is just odd jobs I have done so just a bit of nice pocket change. I like to know other people are doing good as well, how much have you made this month ? If you don't mind me asking.

I think if you only need that amount of money, why not try and do a bit of ewhoring.

However it doesn't matter , well done for a side job.?

Very nice indeed. Yeah I wouldn't call it lucky either. Lucky is winning the lottery. Lucky is being in the right place at the right time for a give away. Earning money, no matter what the job is, is working for it, it is earning it. If you only made a few pounds a month, then that's your problem, step up your game.

Although, I am curious to what you are going to do with your money. It's probably personal, but I'm always interested in what others spend there money on. Personally, I would invest most of it into an index tracker, mainly due to the fact they are the lowest risk and due to me being rather young (18-25), by the time I am 40 - 60 I'm probably going to have millions from the index fund I invest in. (Do the math ^_^).

Anyway, keep up the hard work and enjoy the rewards!

I don't do e whore anymore. I used to try it out, but it does not work for me. I just done certain jobs for people, but I am not going to specify what jobs due to HF terms and stuff.

I am buying a lot into physical gold atm, but I have a lot of investments including stocks and investment in a few start up companies. I don't want you to think I am trying to sound like Warren Buffet, but you got to start somewhere.

Thank you mate, I hope people do not take it as bragging because I don't want it to come off as this, but motivation for people who might be struggling or need a little extra push.

Was this the money you bought the 4K TV with? xD

Naut - April 2, 2015, 8:44 pm

Very nice! I thought I was doing well and I only pulled like $650 online last month. Hope to be on this level someday! I need to step my game up. Keep it up! Hope the funds keep rolling in.

Hey mate, keep it up, that is a lot more than some poeple. I just think you need to keep it up and you will get to that point sooner than you think.
