So, he is selling a method on how to get $50 VISA card to your house for $10, when someone said he won't refund him because it doesn't work in some countries he showed the PM's including a site.

I googled: "Huggies Visa Method"

Second link is the method, it is social engineering and its publicly posted on a forum.

This is just a sad dude that joined this month to make cash off members not knowing things!

Prepubescent - March 31, 2015, 7:33 am

I remember when the forum had SE'ing.

Got taken away because of abuse in the section I think.

I think we should get it back!

Miss the SE Days.

But still its sad to sell public methods...

Rapierz - March 31, 2015, 7:35 am

Found a lot of them

1 reason why I asked for vouch copies, so I can say whether its public or not

Or maybe because its illegal?
And omni doesnt like illegal stuff.

Not always, if you SE people talking to you etc its not illegall, not preffered but legal.

?Saadi - March 31, 2015, 7:49 am

Unfortunate to see people, trying to make quick bucks off public methods. I'm not surprised, as it's not the first time I've seen people on HF trying to do this. ?

True but getting $50 for free doesn't seem very legal.
But why am i talking im sitting here stealing peoples starbucks balance.

Hehe, but this isn't right, the selling of public methods.

This thread will get viewed a lot and it would be the same if I would advertise my products at the top and bottom...

?Saadi - March 31, 2015, 7:58 am

Young Nino, claims that it's not a SE method in his thread:

However, the method of Huggies does involve SE, if I'm not wrong. I feel like, that itself is violating a rule.

BlackRockShooter - March 31, 2015, 8:03 am

Well, I'll ask him about a refund now, because he said it's no SE and it'll work worldwide. It kinda is SE, and it does NOT work worldwide (it doesn't work for me).
If he doesn't accept the refund, should I chargeback the money? Since he violated more then just one rule I'd say it'd be okay but I'm not sure so yea what do you guys think about it?

The SE section was here long before you even joined... Multi??

Multi??

SE was disallowed late 2010 if I recall correctly? After all drama with Amazon and TV's being SE'd although you could still find service or two saying how they did it "legally".

But fair point on multi though.

I'm not 100% sure and I might be wrong, but I joined late 2012 and I thought the SE section was still available when I joined at least for a few months..

You're right. Now that I thought about it better, around late 2010/2011 Omni closed it, then he gave forum a new chance until around June 2012. You could still access it but you couldnt post and threads that remained posted were according to the rules until he finally removed it completely. I believe thats how it was, I cant say for sure, it was freaking 4 years ago, cant remember what I had for breakfast this morning.

Bottom line is, SE isnt allowed.

You should first open a scam report if he does not refund and wait 4 days and after that chargeback.

Okay thanks, I'll do that if he won't answer my PM until tomorrow..

Btw. SE could be legal too. RAtIng can be legal too, but it can also be a lot more criminal then SEing. So why not remove the RAT section? Oh and it can be also illegal to use your PC, so let's just remove the entire hardware/OS section. Same goes for mobile phones. And (at least in some countries) some graphical content (in example there're some nazi things which are illegal in Germany) is illegal too, so let's also remove the GFX section.

I guess the only section which'll be left is Anime Adventures. But maybe there's some nazi anime too. And someone could also comeup with the loli hentai = childporn stuff. Hm I guess omni has to remove the whole forum.

No, I'm not a multi.

I remember coming on HF a long time ago clicking on a thread after seeing someone post on SE Forum and they linked here and I remember seeing the SE section but didn't register, or at least I don't recall registering.... pretty sure I didn't.

Could you tell me why this matters at all? I do not see anywhere on his sales thread that states that this is his method.

There are tons of E-Books and physical books that relay the same information. Some of them are free to access by anyone online, some of them you have to buy. Does that mean all of those products that you could buy are bad? Not at all.

The product could have some proper organization, syndication with other products, visuals, examples, etc.

I really dislike how users comment that a product includes as a public method and rules the entire product as bad. Shame on you.

This is a public method known by a fuck load of people. He copy & pasted the method & sold it. It is scamming.

Does not matter how many people know it, that is irrelevant.

So you know for a fact that he copypasted that, so that tells me you have this product in question and a product that is exactly alike.

Would you mind PMing screenshots? I would retract my statement if you can prove yours.

BoX. - April 1, 2015, 1:47 pm

I was unfortunate enough to buy this a few hours before it was revealed the user was lying.

I've just opened a scam report on this user too; as doubtful as I am, I hope everyone who deserves their money back gets it. Thanks for the alert, hopefully people read it before purchasing the eBook.

NoSuchAgency - April 1, 2015, 6:10 pm

He also claimed to only be selling 12 copies(which was why I bought it) and he ended up adding more copies to the payivy. Yes it is huggies SE

It worked for me so I'm not complaining but still it's SE and he's lying about it not being

This member is extremely dodgy. The kid tried to RAT me and then I threatened him with a community alert so he put onto my rep "User tried to rat me..." like this cunt. Here

I can say to everyone, this method WORKS but its public, thats just not right.

It works, but from what I can tell it only works in the US. Its not right that he's advertising it as worldwide and refusing to refund people with the excuse that it works for him.
