Even during our beta testing launch, our members are learning, growing and prospering!

John Durlin

"I was drawn to Chris as a mentor/coach for two main reasons. Firstly, he was able to demonstrate success. Financial success and the freedom to set his own hours that we all desire. Secondly, he is a family man first and an entrepreneur second. Anyone can go to a job and work longer hours to make more money, I wanted to make more from home, with my family. Chris has had not only the answers, but also the motivation I needed. Having a direct connection to a subject matter expert is an invaluable tool in this business. Just imagine if you wanted to learn about the theory of relativity, and had the option to ask Einstein your questions!"

Katie Vega

"Chris Smith is THE SOURCE when it comes to mastering Amazon. Since I've known Chris, he has been a pioneer in his field of expertise. Always innovating, forward thinking, and bringing a fresh angle to the table."

John Radin

"Chris Smith is a wealth of information. I think his experience as a teacher gives him a unique ability to not only start a new trainee on the right path and get them making money fast, but it allows him to see where one is needing a bit of extra guidance in order to get you where your dreams are taking you. His ability to listen to your goals and funnel your efforts in the right direction make him a better coach than most of the people out there that are "looking for someone who is coachable". You get real world advice from someone who is in the trenches keeping up with the changes in the field daily and that same person can use his great talent to package that information into bite sized blocks of usable information, whether you are new or have years of experience. Chris Smith is the mentor for you.”

Amazon is still growing!

Don't let this be one of those opportunities that you “missed out” on! Amazon selling is HOT right now. They are increasing FBA facilities. Prime memberships are up again this year. It is time to take action with a proven system!
