Thread: Titans Talk MiniCast #2

Premortal - April 2, 2015, 4:48 pm

This week we didn't have a ton of people show up so we decided we'd stick to talking about stuff outside of the Titans usergroup. We go over the different official group recruitments that are going on and what our different opinions on them are. Not too much new ground being broken this week, but we figured we might as well do a casual discussion rather than just skip this week's podcast. If you have any questions or comments about our discussion please let us know.

Decent job this week, could've been longer I suppose, but none-the-less, better than nothing. Looking forward to the next edition.

Pretty sure my voice hasn't changed since the 5th grade.

Still, a lot of people I've talked to from here sound different now. #Puberty

I couldn't set up TS on my phone, so sadly enough I couldn't join this week either.

We held it down with the few people we had, ayy. Any topics we missed?

LMFAO!!!

Nice try at a Podcast without me boys ????

Jk, it wasn't the worst I've heard xD
