The highest perstege I earned was 65, I remember it like it was yesterday. It was a late Sunday night, me and the gang were kick back on Skype exchanging smiles and what not. All of a sudden I heard a crash! it was more like a bang of shattered glass. I almost fell sky high off my chair. Thoughts were racing in my head on who could of that been breaking in my house. But I knew on sight. When I saw the black silhouetted man in the shadows It was my dad coming home in his typical hours drunk as boiled owl. When dad is in this sort of state of behavior its usually a sign to hide. Because he will beat you mercifully like you just dissed him at a bar. So I pretty much did what my mind told me and I ran. I ran like poetry in motion, down the isle of the house I went kicking back nothing but fear. I hopped in my 97 Chevy Malibu and fled. Fled to a place where I could have freedom. A place where I could finally port forward without asking my dad the password every time he changed it.

That was the last time I ever did play Xbox.

Just for those of you who aren't aware of what prestige is or where you can find yours:

Your prestige is created by an undisclosed mathematical formula, involving your post count, rep, award(s), rank and so on.

You can find your prestige near the top right of one of your posts. Alternatively, you can view it on your profile.

EDIT: Oh god, it's only 1. :(

flax - April 8, 2015, 10:43 am

I have only 50 posts, but my prestige is 7 - that must be because of my joining date, or online time :D

Oh, and btw - why the  do we need threads like this? Like... You can see other members prestige, so writing it here means nothing. You can just go through all topics, or all members, and look who has the highest prestige. IMO, threads like this are made just to increase the postcount. You know... To grow bigger virtual d*ck :))

Oh, I just got a green apple, and prestige is still 7 - so maybe rep dont change it so much :)

OCD - April 8, 2015, 10:56 am mine is over 9000

do i win?

i think so.
