Thread: The "Gay Requests because you want free shit" section

My thread got deleted for requesting a NFA. Here's the dilemma. There's nothing in that section stating you're not allowed to request them. The name alone "Gay requests cause you want free shit" doesn't really specify what you can/can't request. Yet staff are deleting my threads?

LOL. It's pretty funny actually. Last time I checked you can't give away NFA at all.

Yeah, NFA aren't allowed to be requested in there. This is F8's post where he said he was going to start cracking down on those requests:

Well then. He made that post a day or two before I got back from my vacation ban. Thanks for posting this.
