I don't understand you mate. BotMarket asked for your PP and you told him that you are not going to give it.

Do you want this resolved or not? Just give him your PP and I'm sure he'll refund.

By the way; stop crying about your Rep. I've seen you saying it a few times already.

He fucked my rep, fucked my money so nope, I just want to alert the community.

If he are too poor for scam $5, it's his problem. I'm not alone, look his rep, many people has get disworking products.

"I was scammed $5" -> Refund. You feel like you're being scammed but BotMarket is offering you a refund.

Why did you buy from him anyway? If you didn't trust him (Because you care about rep; I know you've checked it before buying), I don't understand why you bought it.

I checked his rep AFTER buying his products.....

Send him your PP email and get this resolved. Stop acting like a kid.

I've seen people replying on his thread that it works. I'm sure it's not his intention to deliver you non-working products. Thus the reason why he gives you the opportunity to receive a refund.

BotMarket - April 6, 2015, 2:40 pm

I'm not sure what just happened with the other thread is says it was closed by a mod. But anyways PM me your PP email and ill refund you.

Next time before buying a bot that requires you to have working proxies. Get some working proxies or at least have the knowledge to obtain working proxies.

You're being a moron. He obviously saw the personal email when you sent him the money, so why are you being so particular about it now? It just makes you look sketchy and illegitimate.

BotMarket - April 6, 2015, 3:21 pm

Ok kid all you have to do is dispute the charge and ill refund it or you can simply send me the PP you used to make the purchase with and ill refund it.

Your not hurting me your just making your self look sketchy.....

You're honestly handling this like a child, OP.

Hash G. - April 6, 2015, 3:33 pm

@OP: I understand you're annoyed, but stop acting like a child.

@BotMarket: you can't see which email he used from the transaction ID and refund him to that email?

Weddy - April 6, 2015, 3:34 pm

I send him the pp email used for the transaction. Hope he will not publy her like he has done for the other.

He act like a child so I have to do same

BotMarket - April 6, 2015, 3:40 pm

Glad this is resolved, but I hope next time you're having issues to handle it different. I'm sorry to say but the way you handled this OP was really childish. ?
