I'm just always busy, I can't believe I'm not on this list.

Just a teenager on last year of HS and part time college student with a lot of time on his hand for now.

Learning is fun!

Knautschtabak - April 6, 2015, 11:38 pm

Huh, thanks. But I don't deserve to be on that list. I did my first posts in this section last week. Haven't been active in a very long time before that.

Well, its not am official thread by any means. I think you are trusted, and its a Thanks! thread, so you belong.

Personally I'm at the point I would rather see a total n00b that knows nothing just post "wait for a WHH" and call out sketchy stuff than trying to act all leet, and giving bad advice.

Upgraded acct means nothing, really IMHO. New people may not know this, and can be harmed. (Just find a virus question in the lounge)

C'mon people.. more Thnks are in order IMHO.

Seriously...
