Thread: || -- READ -- ||: Website CONCEPT... Innovation.. I need coders/designers

IDEAS:

- 1) Raiding forums (for twitch raiding for example, and other game raids) with a RADIO - broadcaster is the leader of the raids, he commands raiders where to go - there would be monthly TOP broadcasters/leads etc... (with a portal or forum maybe)
- 2) Pixel advertising website, where there's 1 million advert pixels which they cost about $1 a pixel - for advertisements
- 3) Small portal + chat + radio (I don't see anything useful but it is an idea)
- 4) Website with most useful downloads with categories (maybe a forum + radio too? i need opinions)
- 5) Game/Website development portal/forum/website

I need opinions...

I already found a couple of designers and coders willing to do the job (for free ofc).

I've bought a domain and hosting.

I might pay if there is complications in the process.

Number 2 and 5 are missing a radio man.

<http://alphas.sx/> bruh

Why not combine all of them?

None of these ideas are original?

I don't expect this project will go anywhere.

Alphas.sx is pretty much a desert nowadays, and I'm working with the owner of the website aswell.

We're trying to accomplish something new, innovate around the raiding area. I'm pretty sure this might succeed.

You don't seem to offer much with this.

Simply the guy with an idea, which isn't even very original.

I don't believe any of these projects on there own will go anywhere.

Combining them yield results.

What does a radio give you?

It doesn't sound very original, but I suspect you should give it a go making it yourself. Rather than relying on other people.

I am relying on nobody. If people want to contribute or help in this project, they can.

Who said I was relying on somebody?

With live radio the broadcaster can lead the raids.
