Why should you be upgraded?

I really love this site and I feel like if I was Ub3r, I could really help out more people. I have also been here forever. I'm not going anywhere!

What have you contributed to HF?

I have made several giveaways and services to help out the community, hence the rep. I really enjoy seeing smiles on other peoples' faces.

How old are you?

I'm 20 years old and I live in Texas! :D

Why should you be upgraded? I've been here for 2 years or so, i would like to experience being upgraded. I could be more active throughout the forums and help more people out. I had enough money for L33T until my paypal got limited so i have to start all over again so i would love if you could gift me :)

What have you contributed to HF? Made a few giveaway's before, helped members when they have pm'd me about different programs, i have posted on threads i think i can help with, and in general just tried to help everyone out as much as i could :) My giveaway post's have gotten over 900 views and a ton of pm's.

Why should you be upgraded?

Honestly, I probably shouldn't. That said I feel that I tend to be a positive influence on the community.

What have you contributed to HF?

I've been actively solving peoples issues for a long time now (typically with code, but exceptions happen)

If nothing, what are you planning to contribute?

About the same. I would continue doing what I do as the community benefits from having stable members (even if I do post when I am tired too often).

I don't assume you're offering 3p1c upgrades? Eh :/

TehFif - April 11, 2015, 12:34 pm

Why should you be upgraded?

I think I've been a member longer than anyone applying - not banned for scamming, breaking rules, or infecting other members and I'm not planning on it.

What have you contributed to HF?

I've contributed a lot of creative discussion, which isn't much, but whenever I see someone in need I do help them with out without incentive on my part.

I was actually planning on making a pizza tutorial sometime this week as I am back home and on spring break.

If nothing, what are you planning to contribute?

Same as above.

How old are you?

Almost 21.
