Thread: Xbox Live membership cancelled?

aguila - April 12, 2015, 6:08 pm

So basically yesterday I bought a 12 month from Brown, and today I looked at my email to see that my membership was cancelled?

Anyone know what could have happened?

If you still have gold on your account I wouldn't worry about it, whenever I buy gold I always cancel it so it doesn't auto renew, I like to renew it myself

I don't have any gold on my account

Make sure you don't have an declined credit card on the account or you wouldn't be able to renew gold until you pay the fee that was charged to your declined credit card.

It may be a carded code.

That guy was sketchy anyway in my opinion.

I would call Xbox and tell them that your live just disappeared, they might be able to give you more insight on what happened.

I don't have any credit cards on my account, it was a prepaid code one

The only explanation is that the code you had bought was a fraud code and xbox took it away your lucky you did not get banned if it happens agin you might tho.

EK9# - April 12, 2015, 10:28 pm

yh the code was probably fraudulently obtained your lucky nothing else happened you could of got perm for that.

Thank sweet baby Jesus I saw this thread, I was about to buy a code off of him.

Good luck resolving the problem.

Joga Bonitow - April 12, 2015, 10:58 pm

lol this happening to me when i card with cc's my own gold , microsoft not gonna refund you cuz the "code" that you enter was considered fraud. so they cancel the code , never buy up to 3 month gold in website or someone buy only 1 month or 3

Tyler? - April 13, 2015, 5:57 am

Well, that's the last time I try and help a new seller out.

I feel like an idiot.

Cool. Thanks for letting us know you're a carding piece of shit.

GeNesis - April 13, 2015, 6:19 am

I've bought several codes from him and they all worked. Resold all of them and no one messaged me back about having a problem. Idk maybe it's because I bought 1 months, gl op.

I literally just had it for one day.

Well guess I am not gonna play xbox till I buy more gold, again.

Yea I PMed brown asking if he knew anything about it being cancelled.

Well at least my GT didn't get banned, or I would have been kinda pissed ha ha.

Brown???? - April 13, 2015, 3:10 pm

These codes are not fraudulent, I've sold codes to several people. I don't know why it happened. I've also tried to help the user out, but I honestly don't know why. Trust me, if they were "fraud" id have people pming me the day I started this shop about it, but your the only complaint so far. I honestly don't know about this scenario.

Just by looking at your account I don't even know why he went to you I don't see how you could be trusted at all.

Does your method involve talking to Xbox AT ALL?

Purps - April 13, 2015, 5:26 pm

Notorius, I suggest calling support to see what happened. You may be able to be at least somewhat compensated for it.
