Hi Guys ...

I am starting to develop an Application which will help you to download MP3 from YouTube .

This is the first version of this app ...

I know there are much web pages that helps you to download mp3 from youtube but there are so much ads and takes long time so i decide to create one in vb.net which will make for you more easily to download mp3 from youtube ...

In this 1.0 version , i programmed it to download multiply mp3 from youtube so you can paste as many links you want to download ...

hope it will help somebody ... :))

Hi, thx for the program ^-^

Please be always cautiousness opening a project without knowing the source code (and person) use sandbox programs or VM software if you don't trust the person don't open it their are a lot of programs out there for downloading youtube material i would strongly suggest you take a look to this awesome PHP project ^-^

It's fully OpenSource and it's being made by a great person:

<https://github.com/jeckman/YouTube-Downloader>

It even supports different formats ?

Here's a preview ^-^ of the PHP project it looks really nice

It depends ... if you start just one Link to download of course it will be faster but if you start multiply links ... then it will be slowly ...

it uses webclients to download Mp3 into your PC ...

youtube-mp3.com it's better (on my eyes)

They will say you can't download more than 8 songs a day, fuck them just download (hola) we dem boyz.

Anyway good job.
