Just putting this out there, most of these cheap twitter followers are just mass created accounts directed to follow said person.

They get removed, and you lose all the followers within a week.

I have obtained these accounts from another person so I can start this service up. They look real so I'm not sure if they were mass created or hacked into. However, I tested these on my twitter account(s) and I haven't lost any accounts/followers.

Still selling this service - PM Me.
