Thread: My veteran account just got banned.

Well guys, I can officially tell you DO NOT BOT. Doesn't matter if it your first time, it will be your last time. My 7 year old veteran account got banned for botting. Doesn't matter if you're using a paid script or a free script, they will get you. I ran RuneMate 2 days ago and bottled fishing on OSRS, and the ban came around today. I had a lot of childhood memories on that account but it's no big deal in my opinion. It's just a game.

I remember the good old days when botters never go caught :/

What a noob.

Your reputation is looking a little bit sad, friend.

Yeah botting isn't worth it, it used to be but they stopped a lot of that nonsense.

Best way not to get banned is not to bot.

You ran runemate 2 days ago, with what? Paid or free script?

Exactly, you just answered yourself.

Private scripts are the way to go.

Dungeoneering was so boring so everyone just bought it.

Zher0 - April 17, 2015, 1:46 pm

I remember iDung botted to like 90 Dung, running it 24/7. I'm botting like 4 F2p accounts atm, botting smart, no bans.

Malcolm???????????????? - April 17, 2015, 3:38 pm

I am still botting strong on my main account.

Been doing 3-4 hours a day with manual breaks, and botting non crowded places.

U S D - April 17, 2015, 3:52 pm

And I've accidently left this acc run for 4 days in a row...punching cows on the VPS.

Not sure if I'm the anti ban lord jesus or what.

F2P tho.
