Oh, cool. M4, and an AK. I'll buy those. I negotiate with him 60% of market, so we agreed on $49. I told him I would do half, and then get one gun, then the other half. I sent the first half, he canceled the trade, removed me on skype, then steam.

I will be honest, I thought he was 'okay', and in these skype messages you will see

I sent as good and services, but then he refunded and had me send as friends and family. I somewhat trusted him at that point, and now I cannot dispute it. But Yolo.

Skype Logs:

(Guy also wanted me to reply to a guy on an earlier thread that said he was a scammer wanting me to say that he's not.)

Only messages sent to me from him on HF. (Includes his skype if you want to add him)

Overall, do not trade with this user. Definitely a scammer. I was dumb on this one, but it's $25, I don't care.

PM me and I will win the dispute for free tomorrow when PayPal is open.

Enjoy.
