I figured it would happen given the reputation for the user, but I'll fill out the scam report just because his account is still open with many open scam reports, and would gladly like to see the fucker pay up his debts or get closed, so I'll begin.

HF Username: VxGameWhore

UID: 2263038

Service/Product: Selling Xbox One Games; I purchased CoD AW + Season Pass from him.

Amount: $25.00 USD + PP Fees

Details: I purchased COD AW + Season pass from this user for $25.00 PayPal on Monday April 6th, 2015.

Played everything fine until yesterday morning, when I tried to play the game I get an invalid ownership message display on my Xbox One.

Contacted the user on Skype, as well as HF PM. Gave him 24 hours upon me discovering the problem, because I didn't want to deal with the little fuckers bullshit.

Almost positive this kid will walk away free from this report, because there's not much I can really do.

I just would want other's to be cautious when dealing with anyone, especially this dildo.

In Skype logs, look at the scroll bar, the convo was extremely long, and all I wanted to do was buy AW. The kid will go on talking about his life and movies he's recently watched; I honestly didn't give a fuck what he had to claim about his life.

Legit scam report, VxGameWhore blocked me from his PM's so I can no longer contact him on Skype or HF.

Many of this reports aren't getting attention when they should be.

Looks, legit, and why did you deal with him, if he has such a bad background.

all of those other scams came about a week after mine.

he just locked the account up now.

Looks like he scammed me £15,

It is a real real shame I paid using my VPS LOL.

Kid has no idea how PayPal works and thinking putting your skype name in the notes stops a chargeback xD kid is still scamming people, new reports.

3rd from top 'got AW for Xb1 no problems' - wait 2 weeks he'll change the acc password, like he did to me.

can staff close this dildo before he scams more people? or are we just gonna do nothing here..what the fuck.
