Join us over there on hummingbird!

There's even a AnimeFAN! group over there too now and there's an option that allows you to transfer over your MAL account as well.

Have fun if you do decide to go over there and join the circlejerk it's fucking great hit up yloshi over there yo ughhhughh ?

still not sure why people use this shitty website

not even a decent alternative to MAL

KinGxKeV - April 21, 2015, 6:18 pm

I'll let you humm my bird.

The group was created by Nevieth which I gave permission for. Regardless, I still think the site is shit and MAL is better.

Inferior to MAL true. However not entirely trash though...idc still got myself a new site to dick around.

They have a dedicated knee socks community over there can't be too bad ?

Lyrlei - April 22, 2015, 2:14 am

I transferred to mal already too :) but feel free to add me <https://hummingbird.me/users/Scarlet>

MAL is one true anime list recorder, even though MALgraph is being terminated, someone has cloned and maintaining it over at GraphAnime.

Dragon. - April 22, 2015, 8:57 am

Nothing will ever be as good as the original.

MAL > All

zyvox - April 22, 2015, 10:59 am

HB is more of a social community than MAL though, which is why I use it instead.

hardly watch anime lately but I still visit HB somewhat regularly to stalk people and talk about lewd stuff, community there isn't great but it's enjoyable

MAL is the superior option if you just want to keep track of your anime
