

Forum:Hack Forums

Thread: [\[TUT\] How to wrap text around any object in seconds in Photoshop](#)

honeybutter - April 25, 2015, 4:42 pm

Here is a gif showing how to do this:

<https://i.imgur.com/sr2cFTK.gifv>

I see that many people want to wrap text around objects but do not know how to do so. Here's a very very short and beginner guide on how to do so. Just remember to click on the line of the object. As you can see in the video, I clicked on the line where the object is. This will wrap the text around the object. Really quick and simple but maybe someone doesn't know.

Thanks for looking!

ale12386 - April 25, 2015, 10:58 pm

A very basic tutorial OP, but good for people who are new to photoshop.

RandomUser123 - July 2, 2015, 11:51 am

I didnt know it xP Thanks for the thread :3

Compression - July 2, 2015, 11:54 am

I never knew that. Thanks!

Talu - July 4, 2015, 6:35 am

Thanks for sharing this tutorial, good job.

saddysaddy98 - July 8, 2015, 7:13 am

Thanks for pointing that out. It may come handy.

FractumSeraph - July 8, 2015, 7:17 am

I never knew this o.o

Does this work for the pen tool as well? I don't have it installed at the moment so I can't check.

vmrski - July 8, 2015, 1:01 pm

Yes, this does work with the pen tool.

Gnome Kek - August 13, 2015, 10:31 pm

Thank you man I had no clue this was a thing!

Band1to - January 8, 2016, 11:25 am

good tutorial, i'll be sure to add this into some of my work