Oliver Sykes - April 26, 2015, 9:35 am

Heh, I had 50 rep and like...500 posts? when I got approved for Ub3r. Omni considered that HQ. You're not exactly looking for HQ. Sounds more like "BTC Giveaway Hosters", but hey, your rules. And yes, there are exceptions to this.

Either way, good luck to anyone that joins.

I would like to be upgraded because I've helped out many people in the past. I became inactive in the last month because of school but I am back now ?.

Hey, I respect your decision. You're the one using your own money for the sake of bettering the community. Can you at least do me a favor and discard any entries that barely have any non-giveaway rep? It'd help me sleep at night...or day. I have sleeping problems.

Stratocastr - April 26, 2015, 10:26 am

Hey!

Though I cannot enter the giveaway as I don't meet the requirements, I wanna thank you for giving this opportunity to some!

Earlier as I created a GFX Shop, I later realized, I cannot edit my thread after 1440 posts! That was a huge setback, since it was free service and I required regular updating. Thanks for giving this opportunity to the deserving people! May the most deserving candidate win!

Zexo - April 26, 2015, 10:29 am good luck to the people entering l33t is really cool and gets you alot of things :)

Panel - April 26, 2015, 10:31 am

I have over 250 post's but not enough rep, but can i enter? Im pretty active on here :)

If not then no problem, and good luck to whoever enters! :)

I think it is surprising that you havent found 5 suitable ppl yet...
I mean your criteria is not that hard.

Maybe they dont get the titel?

I have no idea mate i thought that there would be more demand for this

Oliver Sykes - April 26, 2015, 12:17 pm

...Sorry, OP. I only slept like 30 minutes last night.

Those are MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS.

I feel stupid.

I mean, I, for some reason, didn't think about the possibility of them having over 250 posts. 50+ at 250 would be hard. Sorry about that, OP. I need to sleep more.

Pretty sure it took around a month to get my Ub3r, but then again, someone else bought it and there were communication issues between them and Omni, I guess.
