Hiya, I'm Rivalry. I was contacted by Justin to review this ebook. My review is entirely unbiased, impartial, and fair. For reasons of full disclosure, I must declare that I did design this project's new graphics. However, all that means is that I was given a copy for free as reference. My review remains objective.

BASIC INFO

Author: Justin Timberlake

Pages: 8

Number of Methods: 2

Trust Scan: User is trusted

PROFITABILITY

There's one method here, but it splits down into 2 sub-categories, which you can choose from (or do both simultaneously). Both of the methods will definitely work, but in my view one of them is better as it revolves around a slightly safer means of getting paid than the other one.

Importantly, though, after you've bought the ebook and set it up (this will cost a very small amount of money), absolutely everything you make is pure profit. That's what impressed me about this ebook.

RATING: A

EASE OF USE

Set-up will probably take an hour or so. If you don't have the template, I'd highly recommend you buy it because it makes set-up literally a copy and paste job rather than a lengthier process. It's well worth the investment, in my view.

After it's set up, it is genuinely autopilot. I know most ebooks claim to be and aren't, but this one really is. You can just leave it running (even whilst on holiday) and it will just continuously make money around the clock. It's very clever!

So basically, choose to buy the template and you'll have a fully automatic money generation method (which you can then extrapolate and set up infinite numbers of times simultaneously) within about 10 minutes.

RATING: A+

ORIGINALITY

I would never, ever have thought of doing this. I'm a graphic designer, so I like to think that I'm pretty creative, but this really astonished me. I'd never even thought that this was possible, if I'm honest. I've never seen this anywhere else on the web.

I'm confident that this cannot be saturated, too. This is because the method outlined can basically be modified to be literally anything. It includes one site template and an idea just as an example, but just from flicking through the ebook I could tell that the scope here is pretty much limitless.

RATING: A+

GRAMMAR/PRESENTATION

I didn't spot a single grammar, punctuation, or spelling error. That's impressive in of itself in a section plagued by ebooks written by monkeys and imbeciles, but the layout is also really nice. Everything's explained simply and clearly, and the explanation is supported by images at every step along the way. Of course, if you have the template then you also have that to help you out.

Typography is good, with clear demarcation between header/sub-header/body. Overall I was impressed with the layout, but perhaps would've wanted a little more white space.

RATING: A

CONCLUSION

This is a truly great ebook. It's clear, to the point, and effective. Everything you need is included, and it's one of the best autopilot methods I've ever come across. The potential for profit is enormous once the initial investment is taken care of, because everything you earn will be pure profit. This also means that this ebook becomes a snowball, because as soon as you've earned some money you can plough it back in by setting the ebook up another time, thus doubling your earnings each time. Great stuff. This ebook therefore receives an A+ overall rating and is highly recommended for purchase.

OVERALL RATING: A+

Alright so I'm going to skip all the bullshit that the other sellers are spewing, this method speaks for itself.

I'm not promising hundreds of thousands of dollars without lifting a finger, we all know that's not true.

What I do have, is a simple method for a steady monthly income of a few thousand dollars.

This shit is realistic, and that's why it works.

Earnings (Click to View)

Proof of earnings: one day on autopilot (you will earn way more if you advertise ~5 minutes a day):

My final PayPal balance after using this for two months and a bit:

This does not involve shit like CPA, Facebook, dropshipping, blackhat stuff, affiliate/referral shit, e-whoring, eBay/Amazon, etc.

There's a website template included. It used to be sold without it but whatever.

By the looks of it, I'll probably quit my job soon.

No, that is not a joke. I've been putting in about 10 minutes of work every day into this. It took a few dollars and about 20 minutes to set it all up. The custom template really helps with this so I recommend buying it. Also, there is a lot of bonus content, which is very high quality too.

I only had one question during the setup and the support helped me through it explaining everything in great detail. So, I've got nothing but good things to say really!

Big vouch for this Ebook, I highly recommend buying the 3rd package while it's on sale. Definitely worth the money!

Why is 1k in euros and the rest in dollars? This means that you probably didn't get all of it from this method... also one of your vouches says 100 dollars a day yet you get 2500 in 90 days? (Second vouch is kinda thin too) edit: if you make so much money then why sell it?

Because users with EUR in their PayPal can also pay me in EUR if they want to. That's why it shows up like that. Almost all of the money in my PayPal came from the method.

And yes, it's only 2500 because I put in a very small amount of effort to advertise it. If you advertise it (for more than 10 minutes a day), you can get hundreds a day easily.

Because it is not possible to saturate the method, and this way, I can make even more money and help my fellow HF'ers make money!

The setup takes around 30 minutes if you're a begginer, as everything is explained well in the e-book. A minimal investment is required. $2 might, but also might not be enough. I would suggest starting with at least $10.

Hi, thanks for your interest!

- If you want to, yes, but can be done without it.
- If you buy the template, it will take only minutes to set up. And after that, it's autopilot. Putting in a few minutes per day will make you more money though.

So does this method require selling photos/videos?

I've read the previous posts and am wondering if what you mean by spending 5-10 min a day advertising you mean posting on forums to visit your site?

No, it doesn't require that.

There are multiple ways of advertising included in the method! They're all very easy and will boost sales a lot!

You got a scam report to back that up? Or are you just sales trashing?

Also, my account is from 2013, so I'm kinda confused here.

I can't link or upload pictures but the thread is called "How to make money online" 08-18-2015

Care to explain yourself? :D

Damn. honestly that just changed my mind about buying the ebook i was JUST about to click purchase on rocketr before literally reading the last comment lol

Thanks for the heads up!
