Social Media Group

What are we about?

We would be a group of members that support each others Social Media accounts and help each other get followers, friends, group members, subscribers or even retweets. May it be for marketing purposes or to become self famous we would help by getting each other cheap fake followers, exchanging shoutouts or giving tips and techniques out to help others. All Hack Forums rules would apply in this group and all members would have to behave to stay in the group. This won't be a mess around group for people to procrastinate in, we will be intensively be trying to help each other out and get the best results we can for each other. All types of accounts are welcome, adult content account are allowed just as much as a usual group just try not to post direct pictures in the group.

How would this help you?

Any internet market viewing this post know that the bigger the free audience you get your product too the better results you will receive. This group will focus on growing your audience so that you can get more sales, leads or even clicks. We will even have discussions of how to monetize your Social Media Accounts if you have high amount of followers and get lots of likes. You may sell likes, followers, subscribers, ect in my group which will help your sales but you are not allowed to spam the chats. If you do you will be removed. This groups is really easy to join and will be on a situation of if you ask and are high quality you will be accepted.

Can we just use AddMeFast to get results?

No. AddMeFast or any tweetdeck are run by a network of fake accounts that won't do you any good at all. People gain as many points as they can with fake accounts on tweetdecks and then use the coins on their real accounts. This is a method close to all people use on addmefast or any site like it because they don't want their account to look bad by following lots of accounts for points. This group would help you grow an organic account that would have a real audience of thousands of people. Instead of having thousands of fake follower that mean nothing. Having fake followers will mean you get no likes or comments on your posts or videos as the accounts aren't actually used, they are only used for gaining tweetdeck points. Fore example, if you grew a real organic Instagram page with a thousand followers you would be reaching 1000 people that have a high chance of liking your picture and making you more popular because they are clearly interested in what you are posting but if you had 1000 followers from addmefast you may have around 200 real follower that only followed you for the points on addmefast and aren't interested in what you are posting because they only followed you for the addmefast points.

How to join?

Post below of the reason why you want to join and I will send you a PM ASAP.

If you put your Skype a post bellow I will add you to the group asap!

Please do not send me a PM or I might ignore you.

Regular, Leet and Uber are welcome as long as they have positive reputation.

Anything above 0 is fine.

If your into this type of thing you should definitely join ?

Raddify - May 11, 2015, 5:26 pm

I am planning to get way into social media over summer, starting now. I had a 3k account on IG that I grew in 1 month. I have a few connections and talked to people with 100k+ IG accounts. I am planning on getting into Twitter.

So my summer stuff for media will be twitter and instagram. Planning to get atleast 5k followers on each. Hoping this will help me out and I am also going to get back into the OG market, if this is accepted please PM me for my skype. Thank you, have a good day! <3

Ishmel - May 11, 2015, 5:30 pm
