I sent OP a message asking to clarify some questions that I had regarding this program. I was a bit persistent so to my dismay OP didn't bitch out or get annoyed. He knew to handle himself and portray a sense of courtesy and respect so that was nice!

Post Purchase:

I'm new to the cracking show. So I asked OP for some spoonfeeding and without hesitation OP was keen on showing his product and how well it performs. I can happily say that this is extremely easy to use with half a brain.

I'd definitely recommend this tool for anyone that's new/intermediate/advanced as it can save time, teach you a simplified process, and is easy to use on the side.

What can i do with that subscription when the software you sell DOES NOT WORK??

I kindly asked you and sent you a PM, more than 24 hours ago, which you ignored, along with the other PM and the post i left here in this post.

I know you saw my messages because you were online at the time i sent the first message, then you just went away, offline, since then you been on and off in the forums, and just didnt care to reply to me. Only until i did it.

Yet you are here 'warning' me, instead of trying to fix the problem, you shouldnt be selling software that doesnt work, and then ignore users when they ask you for support, been here in the forums long enough, never had a problem with anyone in the past.

Software doesn't even run.

Every time I click instagram OR twitter option, the software closes with this error message:

7/23/2015 8:38:19 PM : 0x0F

7/23/2015 8:39:35 PM : 0x0F

7/23/2015 8:40:02 PM : 0x0F

7/23/2015 8:40:36 PM : 0x0F

7/23/2015 8:40:56 PM : 0x0F

7/23/2015 8:42:27 PM : 0x0F

I'm asking for a refund. if this doesn't get fixed/refunded, a scam report will be opened.

Yes, and i've tried running as administrator... also ending blocking processes.

it still has the same error.

So, Here is my review :

Bought this product yesterday or before i think, but i still didn't get to use it yet, it says that it's instant but it's not ! i have paid the invoice the order is confirmed i have received a serial number but guess what ? it doesn't work on netseal, contacted the support but he asked me to join him on skype said i can't do that, then he said he is not at home or whatever, til now he reads my pms but no replies yet, hope you will fix that soon because when i pay for something that is said to be 'instant' i expect to get and use it 'instantly'

Again, this review is from my personal experience other users may have had a different experience.

Hi Cory,

YOUR PM IS TURNED OFF ! THIS IS NOT VERY HELPFUL, INFAC, COULD BE CONCIEVED

AS A DODGE!

I have bought your ASS generator and had problems accessing my account - it is at the moment locked out saying i am using the wrong password (this is nonsense) and this is the third time since i purchased that i cannot access(change over of ownership, hack attack and now this - it has been three weeks in trying to contact you).

I have skyped too many times to remember, tried to call and posted twice on the forum page - but all to no avail - can you please sort out.

My log on is - RLG59RSGS, i have a life time membership.
