Description:

A 34-year-old NEET otaku is chased out from his house by his family. This virgin, plump, unattractive, and penniless nice guy found that his life are going down the path to an end. He then recalled that his life could actually be much better if he can get over the dark history of his life. Just when he was at the point of regret, he saw a truck moving at fast speed, and three high-school students in it's path. Mustering all strength he had, he tried to save them and ended getting run over by the truck, quickly ending his life. The next time he opened his eyes, he is already reincarnated to a world of sword and magic as Rudeus Greyrat. Born to a new world, a new life, Rudeus decided that, "This time, I'll really live my life to the fullest with no regret!". Thus start the journey of a man yearning to restart his life.

Thread assumes everyone is caught up after this point. Spoiler alert for the rest of the thread.

Anyone else reading this series? So what do you guys think of the series so far?

Supposedly the novel tells a lot more and is much further on, but I'm not one for light novels usually. Not sure if I will read it. The plot is pretty interesting though, so maybe...
