we communicated the whole time via hf PM's I want you to look @ where he said "me"

he said "me" because I sent him this pm

When i ask him for payment

he says:

off-topic but this goes to show how shitty HF has become

<https://imgur.com/e51aKaK>

says I scammed him, when all I did was leave rep on his acc saying he scammed me(which he did) for roughly $26.

BTC account showing he didn't pay: <https://imgur.com/9kMljfb>

Yeah you must be well versed in HF history with that join date

OP it says right in those first PMs that his name is bubbler220 so if that's who you traded this seems plenty valid to me.

Oh, I thought it was his.

Seems simple enough then. Might as well post proof of the bitcoin transaction too.

He has seen your rep with the deal-dispute link, for reference (:

Also OP its important to name the thread appropriately. If it's just a phrase, no one can search him and see that he isn't trustworthy.

Thanks for heads up, changing the title, and added the btc wallet proof.

Quite sad that he can't even reply to this. What a piece of scum. Everything looks legit to me.

Anyways hope this gets resolved OP.

He eventually traded me but declined.

Why would I scam $28?

You sent a PM ON HF when I asked for the verification for that person via PM.

Why would I trade you after, I thought I had already sold the gold to you.

(May 9, 2015 05:13 PM)Game Freak Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) After that, you traded me but you never accepted buddy.

I might have sent you a trade request afterwards, but that didn't matter as I had already given the 11M to the person that I had pm'd asking for verification on HF and did send me a PM.

Why would you send me a PM saying "me" if I had never asked you to verify.

Why would I take screenshots of a trade that I was 100% certain was legit.

It's sad to see people scamming for such little amounts of money ?
Hope you get this resolved OP.

Which ones? The pm's both the RS and HF ones were taken after you didn't pay me.
