Proxies are basicly used for not getting your IP "Banned" at the Skype Login. It's not really uses for protecting yourself.

But i guess you can. Proxyless>With Proxies

You don't need a password list as there is a preloaded list already. But if you do go through it without much luck then I can provide a larger list. You will need a proxy list though

Please stop posting random bullshit

Here's both attack methods putting at a test

Now if you're checking a larger list you need proxies as Skype times you out after a few unsuccessful login attempts. Simply scrape proxies yourself or buy a proxy tool which generates thousands of proxies for this.

Trying to find out whether or not the man (my ex fiancé) who just walked out on mother's day 7 month old and I was cheating on me while in the hospital on bed rest and my baby was in the NICU. He has said there is no one else but he doesn't have his profile private and his contacts increased by one as soon as he left us. He only had 4 prior but that's it.

Where do I start in just seeing if he has added someone else? The reason being is - this is my child's father in South Africa. I need to know for attorneys and we don't have the kind of money (he has TONS) to get a private investigator. An attorney is even a 6k retainer fee....

Oh yeah another thing, the dictionary list that comes with it, that's what was causing it to crash with me, around about the 8000, just like another poster said

pyrnon - May 23, 2015, 9:27 pm

So did some tests.

Did a dictionary attack that had just my password and without proxies

- ran twice = both times successfully found password

Did a dictionary attack that had just my password and 100 proxies

- ran twice = both times unsuccessful

Did a dictionary attack that had 300 passwords and without proxies

- ran twice = both times unsuccessful

Did a dictionary attack that had 300 passwords and 100 proxies

- ran twice = both times unsuccessful

Did a dictionary attack that had 2 passwords and no proxies

- ran twice = successful

*same test with 3 passwords = successful both times

*same test with 4 passwords = unsuccessful both times

Did a dictionary attack with 4 passwords and 5 proxies

- ran twice = both times failed

Did a dictionary attack with just my password and 5 proxies

- ran twice = both times failed

Did a combo list with my username:password and no proxies

- ran twice = both times successful

Did a combo list with my username:password and 100 proxies

- ran twice = both times failed

Did a combo list with my username:password and 5 proxies

- ran twice = both times failed

Proxies I used were from hidemyass. From what arrow says, without proxies it does actually time out and fails (looks like after 3 passwords). I haven't tested the position of the password on the list though. So I am not sure if it will pick up the password on a list of 300 if I put the password as the 1st or 2nd entry.

For 300 passwords, would I need a bigger proxy list (over 100)?

I was going to try testing a combo list that was patterned to have my credentials after every 3 entries, but a bit too tired for it.

One other thing I noticed was when using a proxy list, it runs much slower. No idea if its because of the proxies or if its due to something else.

EDIT: Also after every test, I had to close out of the program and run it again. Don't know if its possible to make it be able to run consecutive attempts.

I have no idea how this tool works nor do I have any experience what so ever in coding or hacking/hijacking any kind of account. So I am a complete novice to these things, but these are the things I have found. Hopefully my input can help make things better. And I apologize if I stepped on anyones toes by posting this.

Also, thanks for fixing the crashing issue. :)

Ringo48000 - May 25, 2015, 7:08 pm

so just to give quick review maybe it might help to buy or not buy this product cause I couldn't find any review on this before I get it.so I got this product 3 days ago as I thought it might work even there was no real explanation how it works exactly. so basically from wat I understand that this app comes with dictionary contains 10000 combos which is pretty much useless, therefore probably 99% you'll get nothing, so I had to contact (arrow) in order to let him know that it didn't work and thankfully he provided me with bigger 1000000 combos list which is amazing (even my password wasn't there) so I tried to load this list in the dictionary as It can look up around 1000 combos in each two hours or even more, so basically in order to get it done on high end pc with ultra high speed internet it will take 2000000 hours atleast! yup I guess that's the correct number :D .even thought if your ultra monster pc can get this done, you cant be even sure that those 1000000 combos will include the password your looking for! and that's it. sorry to say that but I paid $20 bucks and I got nothing but bullshit in return. and that's pretty much it.

It doesn't take a genius to google it and find a good dictionary. Not everything needs to be spoonfed (May 25, 2015 07:08 PM)Ringo48000 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) so just to give quick review maybe it might help to buy or not buy this product cause I couldn't find any review on this before I get it.so I got this product 3 days ago as I thought it might work even there was no real explanation how it works exactly. so basically from wat I understand that this app comes with dictionary contains 10000 combos which is pretty much useless, therefore probably 99% you'll get nothing, so I had to contact (arrow) in order to let him know that it didn't work and thankfully he provided me with bigger 1000000 combos list which is amazing (even my password wasn't there) so I tried to load this list in the dictionary as It can look up around 1000 combos in each two hours or even more, so basically in order to get it done on high end pc with ultra high speed internet it will take 2000000 hours atleast! yup I guess that's the correct number :D .even thought if your ultra monster pc can get this done, you cant be even sure that those 1000000 combos will include the password your looking for! and that's it. sorry to say that but I paid $20 bucks and I got nothing but bullshit in return. and that's pretty much it.

Pretty much this. If you're looking to find the password of one particular individual, this way isn't very practical.

Is this still working ? I'm very interested in purchasing . :3

cerniw - June 14, 2015, 10:27 am

Does anyone have a reliable hybrid dictionary list? The account I need to access most likely uses a password that takes a regular word and substitutes a letter with a number or punctuation mark. For example an o with a 0 or i with a 1. I have tried at least 6 lists without any success but none use this kind of substitution.

GameAlways - June 14, 2015, 1:37 pm

still working ? please answer me i'm confused as fu*k i bought it and it wont work

ka4461 - June 16, 2015, 12:11 am

So here is an honest review of the product. By the way the website is described, it looks like you can retrieve anyone's Skype account login right out of the box. Essentially, this is a fancy brute-force program that still requires you to bring your own password lists (a .txt file of passwords) and your own proxy list (a .txt file of proxies). The default password list is small, around 10,000 I believe and chances are unless the target is a novice - you will not find the password. There is no proxy list given and if you use the program without one chances are your IP will be banned after a few times, because all this program does is bruteforce here after a few failed attempts Skype will block. The OP does not provide updated proxy lists (allows you to try logging into account on a different IP address), but does offer yet another service to give you updated proxy lists (around $30). So between the $19.99 this program costs, the $30 it'll cost you to get an updated proxy list, and the fact that you have to search for your own password lists - it is not worth the $49.99.

So theoretically, you need some technical knowledge. Such as:

- Knowing what proxies are, and what proxy lists do, and the need for a proxy list when engaging in brute-force attacks
- Knowing what password combination files do and how sometimes it is an impractical method - that you are waiting and waiting for passwords to be tried on a list that might not even have the password
- That this is just a fancy brute-force program

Now am I saying it doesn't work as described? No, not at all but it seems to be very misleading that I can get someone's login information [right out of the box] and that is not the case.

Flaxpicker - June 16, 2015, 9:00 am

(Jun 16, 2015 12:11 AM)ka4461 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) -snip-

Yes it is a bruteforcing tool. The 10,000 list is the most common passwords list so a lot of the time that should do the job but at times it doesn't. That's when you need a larger list. Someone has posted a huge list on this thread earlier which you can use.

i like this product, its easy to use, hasnt cracked a pw for me but i was only running off the default 10k list, just uploaded a 3 million word dictionary. Couple questions though

1. Can you run more than one username at a time?
2. I have noooooo idea about the proxy list, can you just not use a proxy?
3. Can you still do other stuff on your pc while skypejacker runs or does it affect sj's performance?
4. If it gets a pw, does it tell you at that moment or do you have to let the program run its full course then it tells you pws at the end?

thank you for answers, I am very new at this

1. You can just use your password list and put the username as suffix then repeat with the other username you want to crack and import it as combo.
2. Proxies are kinda important because the program will timeout after the first few checks if you aren't using them due to how fast it checks them. Hence making the rest of the passwords it checks pointless because they aren't being processed
3. Yes you can do whatever you want to do on your computer. SJ is a lightweight tool and I don't think anything should really affect its performance

4. If it hits the password it tells you at the moment. The account shows up on the dashboard so you can see you had a hit.

Wolf of Wall Street - June 22, 2015, 11:19 am ok last question I promise, you have been more than awesome with the support.

Being new, I do not know how to do the load proxy part. Do you grab a list off the internet, download them and then import them that way? Similar to a bigger dictionary?

again thank you

edit: Im gonna take a shot at answering my own question after studying up---let me know if right or wrong

I cut and paste a ton of proxies into notepad and saved it as a .txt file. That is the file I put into skype jacker load proxies double edit---it seems this is right, but when i load the proxy list, the skype name and use just the default pw list, it stalls after 5 pw's and stays stuck at 9995 remaining

HQ product; if you're looking for a tool to hack a Skype this is the one.

Flaxpicker - June 22, 2015, 9:03 pm

The problem seems like either you aren't loading enough proxies or you ran into a few dead proxies in a row so it's trying to process. Give it some time and it will move onto the next combo when it hits an alive proxy

Use a larger list. Not that hard

I recommend getting something else than this. I bought this a while back from the official site and I thought I paid for a finished product, but only got half of what it showed me in the pictures, plus I had a huuuuuge password list and it only loaded 10.000 of them. And it was always stuck at the 1st pass. I tried to contact the creator of it for a refund and he asked why, then when I told him what I just stated above here, he didn't even reply.

How long does it normally take to crack an account? Or does this strictly depend on the proxies used?

Skype does ban IP
That's the reason there is an option to import proxies and use those so you don't get your ip blacklisted for too many invalid login attempts

Prob the best Skype Jacker on the market right now, getting fucking amazing results with my lists. Upgrading very soon to the lifetime package. If you're smart, you can make a shit ton of money off of this. This Skype Jacker is coded VERY WELL and attacks very well. I am not disappointed at all with this product, its gods gift and its price should be raised (but after I upgrade to lifetime xD). first off since skype implemented captcha on wrong login after about 4 attempts. REGARDLESS of proxies or not how do you bypass that? on single accounts?

and secondly what login are you using that differs from login.skype.com ? even sentry mba can run it fine and NOT miss hit nor skip accounts so i wonder whats better about that then sentry with manager.skype.com as login...

Hey guys, it's been a few weeks after buying this. I just want everyone to know what they're getting into. You CAN target single skype accounts, you will most likely not be able to get their password though. It would take years to go through an entire password list. I thought my proxies were bad, but nope, they were all good. I let it sit overnight, and it only went through about 500 attempts of the password in over 12 hours. This is mainly for username and password lists to gain a large amount of skype accounts for something. Not for individual skype account use.

Skype doesn't limit account. It will block your ip after a few incorrect login attempts - Thats the reason this has proxy support

How long does this take to crack a 10 letter password with upper and lower case? Because I imagine it's running a wordlist, basically like cracking a hash.

hi, so i was wondering what is the content of the dictionary?
is it popular words in diferent language, or english only?

what are "combo list" ?

what is the proxy list used for and where do i find that?
i already use a proxy on my computer, does it need to change ip regularly or not?

is there anything wrong with launching the program 2 or 3 time simulatously on 3 diferent targets?
would that slow down the process or not? (i think it wont, but you're the boss) sorry for the newbie questions.

if i succesfully do what i want i wont forget to let peoples know here :)

IForgotmyPass - May 2, 2016, 6:33 am

Keep getting the, 'Unable to continue due to an error. Exception wrritten to 'loader.log' file.' error.

I have contacted user, 'Arrow' about it but his respond time is.. Let's just say, long. But anyway, anyone knows how to fix this while I am waiting for a respond from him?

Also, I have already allowed it pass my MC-A-FREE annti-virus and firewall software (MC-A-FREE) and have allowed it pass my computer firewall. (I am sure I have, but not confirmed. I followed instructions online. At first MC-A-FREE was deleting the software, but after I disabled and try it, it still doesn't load. Then I re-enabled it and disabled my MC-A-FREE firewall and anti-virus along with my computer firewall). Anyone know the solution?

Nvm, found out what's causing it.

Do we need like shit tons of password combination? If so, who has GOOD combo? I am willing to buy for $5 - $20 depending Still on the line for support and sales for this product.

Let me know via PM.

I acknowledge HackForums new market place rule update and will not post on this thread hereby again. I in no way intended to abuse "bump". I only wanted to inform customers that I am still on the line for support. I will not bump hereby after to avoid going against rules.

Ganie - September 29, 2016, 7:40 am

People the service is so shitty, i pad for it, and it is working so slow, when i asked this Guy, he never replied.

Sales Threads should never be about Sales only but also helping out after the sales. Now i am stuck with this Skype-Jacker and i also bought Monster-Proxies for this, but it's super slow for a reason and the guy ain't helping at all.

Better to stay away from buying

Such an egoistic and scammer on this thread, paying people to vouch for him on the thread. Not bothered to reply to me for 20 Hours after payment. You should close this thread and stop selling a scam

So i waited almost 36 hours for this SCAMMER selling thiis shitty program to respond and i sent him 6 emails so that he can reply.

This is what this SCAMMER has to say in his email to his customer who paid for this Crappy Program:-

Someone has to teach you some manners since your parents didn't do a very good job at it. Rude piece of shit

You aren't getting any support from me until you fix your shitty attitude.
