630 - May 15, 2015, 11:34 pm

A few members requested the same one and they were declined because the item was given to another member. If you did not get your request another and link your HF profile.

Try to choose random ones, have had a few people request the same one and I am left tracking them down. If your name is not in the notes, in my PM box, or on the thread the request is getting denied. If you were falsely denied then I apologize, please request another.

AshleyUK - May 17, 2015, 9:01 pm
