Can you do epics as well? They are cheaper after all :)

Harvard - May 14, 2015, 11:27 pm

Why I should be upgraded?

I'm too poor to upgrade myself. It's not because I'm a kid, but it's because these student loan debts are literally crushing my soul right now and I can't even spend $2 on a pack of gum. Even though I'm new here, I love this website and plan on being around on here for a long time to come.

But I have been here for 5 years, actively helping out everyone who needs help even when I had little knowledge to even now helping out those in need edit: got ub3r from another member but still keen on the gift award :)

53732 - May 14, 2015, 11:52 pm

Why should I win this? I want to become a vendor, and being upgraded would permit me access to the premium seller's section.

Also, I'm not saying that if you give me l33t, than your penis will grow bigger, but no one can prove it won't. Plus, you e-peen will grow as well.

CJamie - May 15, 2015, 3:50 am good luck to everyone entering

Sunlight - May 16, 2015, 11:05 pm

I don't deserve the gift award more than anyone else, it'd make me look like I have friends if someone gifted me the gift.

I try to be HQ and offer my advice in the forum of a relationship help desk as I have no money or talent to give back/contribute to the community like most others can.

Thanks OP.

Biz Nessman - May 22, 2015, 8:17 pm

I think I deserve l33t because I've contributed a lot to the community over the short time I've been here. I'd like to stay in this community and hopefully gain a word for myself, learning more advanced methods of things and simply giving back to the community.

I've published my open source keylogger, and hope to post more things like this in the future. I think the Hackforums community can be great and can be horrible but I'll be sticking around.

Enjoy the gif, hopefully you're a doge person.

Ta-kun - May 27, 2015, 2:01 pm

I'm enter fir the Ub3r upgrade.

The reason I believe that I deserve Ub3r is because I'm always browsing through the forums helping people. Whether it be iOS support, C++, Python, Crystal, HTML, or any other topic I feel that I can help others with. When it comes to giveaways I'll be honest, I've never done one. Should this determine why or why not I deserve Ub3r. I think bot. I don't think money makes you a high quality users. Is it generous, yes, but seeing how many people you can give 0.10¢ to does not make you high quality. So I hope that you choose me!

Thanks in advance, and good luck to all who enter!

Archer - June 14, 2015, 7:39 am

I would like to enter for Ub3r. I'm an active member who is always helping in the beginner hacking section.

Sunlight - June 14, 2015, 8:00 am

I believe I deserve the award because I work with what I've got. I don't have the money nor the skills to give back to the community, so I give out my advice in innuendo and I've got a help desk there too. It's the place where I feel like I can help others and helping others always makes me happy. It'd be nice to have someone gift me something, even if it's a small thing such as an award.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

I feel I deserve the gift award as I always strive to help out around the forum. I have helped countless people behind the scenes with emotional support in the 143 days and some of this continues even today. I am always helping the newer members out where and when I can (I remember what it was like being new) when others ignore their requests for help/advice.

I feel my contributions over the 5 years I have been here have helped so many people in so many ways. I always aim to be a high quality member and look out for those that need it.

My fingers are firmly crossed and I wish every one of you the best of luck.

I would love the Gift Award, as I haven't gotten it yet.

_AtomicLunchBox - June 18, 2015, 1:41 am

I think I deserve to be upgraded because of my good forumship, my aiding skills with people in need of help with computers, my high quality posts and responses. Also, people will look up to my positive influence around the forum and this can spread among other members across the forum, I also highly encourage high quality posting to other members; and I willing to private message members with questions and comments gladly and willingly. I believe I am mature enough to take the utmost advantage of this UB3R upgrade to the maximum extent; I also strongly look forward to becoming an ever more active member by joining a positive group on HF to aid those in need in computers.

Now here's a funny picture to look at :D -

The Supreme Gentleman - June 18, 2015, 5:50 pm

I feel I deserve this upgrade because I am a good user on HF. I host giveaways, help people out, make informative posts, and most of all, try to make people smile. I was recently approved for ub3r as well!

Critique - June 19, 2015, 6:07 am

Idk why but this got me laughing quite a bit because of her reaction. ?

Her: Okay, let's go take this cap off really quick.

The bottle starts to bubble as she takes off the cap

Her: OH HELL NO, GET IT GET IT GET IT.

As she attempts to put the diet coke back into the bottle.

This is my post for a go at receiving ub3r, good luck everyone.

redBit - June 26, 2015, 4:28 pm

Hope I can enter now! Hope you will count me since I really want L33T

Optimization - June 26, 2015, 10:17 pm

Hello.

First of I would like to say that this is a great contribution to the forum.
it will definately make members like myself stay to try and win a price like this and on the other hand also make a friendship out of it.

I would love to win l33t because that would first of all mean better communication with all of HF, I got a full PM box everyday and that means harder communication with ub3rs such as yourself who have contributed more than enough.

Upgrading me would bring out my full potential and I would work hard to make up for it, by contributing to the forum as much as I can.

Thanks in advance OP ?

Keyro - June 26, 2015, 11:19 pm

I would really like to contribute and help out the community of HF. I really enjoy spending lots of time on the forums to purchase and to help out the people who are in need of advice or help.
