Thread: Turn "FIFA Game Forum" Into "EA Sports Forum"

Time? - May 17, 2015, 8:37 am

As someone who plays Madden, 2k, MLB, and NHL games, I feel that the section should be dedicated to ALL games EA Sports. It's hard to find people to discuss other sports games with due to the fact that you can't search "NHL", "MLB", or "NBA".

Thanks!

Hexicidal - May 17, 2015, 8:38 am

I agree with this forum suggestion 100%.

Roger Waters - May 17, 2015, 8:42 am

I agree with this, not sure why it wasn't named that in the first place.

Minato Namikaze - May 17, 2015, 10:00 am

This would simple it down a bit more.

I like this suggestion :)

Trifecta - May 17, 2015, 10:50 am

This is a great idea. I agree with this idea. What about sports games that aren't EA though?

It's just kind of assumed to post there. There really aren't many sports games that aren't EA though.

Server97 - May 17, 2015, 10:51 am

I agree. Great suggestion OP :DDD

SocialBooster - May 17, 2015, 7:35 pm

I feel you man, this might be a good idea! :P

~$ocio - May 18, 2015, 3:17 am

Perfect, add thread prefixes and everything will work great.

kimeN - May 20, 2015, 12:15 am

Yes, that's a great idea. Totally agree with you on this.

JDCL - May 20, 2015, 1:48 am

This would bring in a much larger variety of discussion. Nice suggestion, OP.

Rob Gronkowski - May 20, 2015, 12:42 pm

I would love this. Gotta find some Madden buddies.

TM88 - May 20, 2015, 5:43 pm

What? No dudes FIFA is more for discussion of UT and whether coin sites are acceptable or not. I disagree.

Shockley - May 21, 2015, 4:11 pm

Probably the first idea I've seen Sam give an ounce of positivity towards, lol.

SoTo - May 21, 2015, 4:19 pm

I would love that! As I play every EA sports game but FIFA and Madden are my favs

Time? - June 19, 2015, 7:53 am

I'm ing this because I truly feel that this should be implemented.

The Godfather - June 19, 2015, 8:52 am

This is would be a good idea, considering sub forums for this forum were to be added, such as "NBA Sub Forum", and "FIFA Sub Forum".

Nice idea, OP.

Thanks. And yeah, since the FIFA forum is practically dead, it would benefit that forum for sure.

Farasay - June 19, 2015, 9:29 am

This should be done, especially since the fifa section is so dead recently

Dowls - June 19, 2015, 9:37 am

2k wouldn't go in there though... correctly at least. It's made by 2k. However yes fifa is dead right now both on the forum and as a game itself.

eightz - June 19, 2015, 9:41 am

Fuck yeah i want to talk about need for speed

SIM-2005107 - June 19, 2015, 9:43 am

Great suggestion. Since EA Sports changed the terms of FIFA, that forum section is dead.

Well, I guess it could be "EA Sports Games/2K Sports Games " lol

Cyaddd - June 19, 2015, 9:58 am

Sports Games section would be a +support for me, they could also have thread prefixes like "FIFA" or "NBA"

Exodi - June 19, 2015, 9:59 am

no one plays madden? I mean, that's so dead

Samesies - June 19, 2015, 10:02 am

I do like the idea but all the the other "EA" games are essentially dead. FIFA is so active mainly because its a world wide game and FIFA Ultimate team. I don't see all the other games bringing anymore activity.

A lot of other people on here, along with myself, are big fans of the games.

So by adding more game discussion to a forum (and not removing any game) you're going to try to convince us that the forum would not become more active by adding in more sports games?

+support

Time? - December 17, 2015, 1:21 pm

Bumping because I really want this to be implemented.

.Vi. - December 18, 2015, 12:42 am

As far as i can see this is more beneficial then anything to that subforum, could add in tags to topic titles for each game?

Time? - April 12, 2016, 6:25 pm

Bumping because I'd still like to see this implemented.

Dead on here, maybe. Elsewhere, definitely not. You must be blind to the growth of Madden/Mut (Even has some better features than FUT, that I want on fut because FIFA is my main game.) I'd rather say sports game forum because there's currently no place for games like Football manager, PES and 2k sports titles such as NBA.

What about ufc

Bluffer - April 14, 2016, 2:39 am

I would love a forum to discuss NHL video games and if that's inside a EA Sports section I'm all for it! Even though this thread is almost a year old I support this suggestion!

The FIFA subforum is dead too
So why not adding dead games to it
Then at least a few people can discuss about it

manel101 - April 25, 2016, 1:06 pm

is it really possible ? this is the first idea i hear somethi g like that
