This happen on Sunday, I told him that I would open a scam report on him by Tuesday if he did not resolve it by than. I think 3 days to resolve this is plenty of time.

That's not really reasonable brother. If he is limited in paypal, its not going to go away in 2 business days.

I called PayPal for him via Skype yesterday, he was in the call - he asked me to do him that favor. His PayPal is limited, they're requesting him to furnish ID and bank statements. His bank is a VBA, so statements are impossible and he used a fake name on the PayPal. The rep said the temporary holds will not be lifted until his account is un-limited, which from the sound of it, isn't ever happening. I don't know how much I believe that the funds will stay frozen statement though.

PayPal limited his accounts so all his transactions got fucked

This is the #1 reason I come on HF just to browse for a second. People like this ruin this site and the marketplace is horrible.

I am tired of cock suckers scamming over little amounts and not even being man enough to reply in the thread.

Quite the pussy he is.

Hope you can get your simple $9 back

He's responsible for it, but didn't directly scam you. PayPal charged back his payments and limited his account, which is out of his control. Should be his problem though, not yours.

A shame, he did mention it over skype as the easy way out to exit scam. He reimbursed me in BTC, but may have been partially because I tried helping him with his paypal issue.

Eddie - May 27, 2015, 5:05 pm

I feel bad for G-Eazy, he must have a sad life to scam for $9 ?

Why not? He scammed for $9, it doesn't hurt me but I want to expose him for how pathetic he is for scamming for such a petty amount.

Croatian - June 1, 2015, 12:40 am

Just let him be, I think enough people have seen that he scammed for $9.

It doesn't really affect you neither, right?

Eddie - June 1, 2015, 1:02 am

I just lost the C/B and he has officially been banned.
