Update of 30-05-2015:

SpK just refunded me. I am so happy, this litterly made my mofo day :D
Closing this thread now. Glad SpK changed his ways.

So basicly the user SpK sold this satoshimines bot and made people believe it actually worked by inspect elementing his win amount but got busted by a user on Hackforums. He then said he will refund people so I sent him a PM. Here is our full convo. I even said that I dont need the full amount back. Just some of it.

I know he can decide wether to give a refund or not but as he already promised it to me I think this is a scam. He also has me on his Ignore list now.

Here I bought your Bot.

My BitCoin adress is:

18jA2wuKJF-----

I dont have paypal because mine got limited. You can send the money without fees so if you only get 110 or 100$ its fine too.

I will get BTC soon

Okay great. I am happy that you changed your ways and will open a thread about you being a good person eventhought you "scammed" people. I wouldnt call it scamming as you only faked proofs. and people got what they bought for. but good to see that we get our money back as its not working/not getting our money back :/

Thanks bro. Remind me to send you btc

Yeah I will obviously. Please send my BitCoin directly when you have it as I have to have it urgently. :)

No problem

Any update on the bitcoin?

Still waiting on my exchanger

hi its pretty urgent ;/ can you please reply mate?

Not refunding anymore.

?Cyber - May 19, 2015, 2:17 pm

His only problem was that 2-3 people faked purchases and ended up getting a refund.

yea it seemed a little fishy

You idiots, the BOT works just like any other fucking one. I don't know or care for SpK but holy shit. It works but cash out at the right time, don't risk it all which is what 98% of you did. He doesn't need to refund anyone as you guys got exactly what you paid for.

KauSpec - May 19, 2015, 2:22 pm

He won't refund me either. I'm gonna open a deal dispute soon too.

it is gambling at the end of the day for those of you that haven't realized it yet.

KauSpec - May 19, 2015, 2:23 pm

It is a fraudulent product related to gambling. It's still a purchased product. He offered refunds and he said he would refund everyone who bought it. It doesn't matter if he's been refunding to many people as the people who actually bought it didn't do anything wrong.

He does not have to refund you. You got a product O.o. You're owed nothing, he changed his mind.

He stated he would refund me, he does have to refund me.. He personally told me he would. I literally paid for a fraudulent product.

are u serious he has a thread named:

Anyone can make online success - 19 years old making $400,000/month on average literally bragging about his 400k a month income

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4367015>

obviously i know about his income if he's flaunting wealth left and right

Sorry.

Clarify what is fishy about the situation?

FreeAnneFrank - May 19, 2015, 3:09 pm

guys no reason to fight. i just want my money back lol

I think that he should refund us... He told us he would. This is not our fault.

Online affiliator - May 19, 2015, 4:21 pm

Spk refunded me instantly, Look at the thread then look at the pic you just posted. In the thread you act asif you did nothing wrong.. But what actually happened was you threatened him with scam report. If you asked nicely and just waited patiently he would have refunded.

Why? He shouldn't be refunding anyone. His "fake proof" was posted several days after he opened the thread. You people bought it, you got what you paid for. The bot worked.. Now you all lost so you bitch and moan as if it's his fault.

Doesn't sound like OP bought before the fake proof, if he didn't have fake proof all along, can't remember to be honest. It's not without reason he junked his thread, and it's not just fake earnings, it was 0.1 BTC -> 8 BTC, a doubling factor of 80, as well as saying he will make a blockchain for y'all to see where he would let the bot run continuously and show daily earnings.

The product did not work as described. (Keep in mind OP probably didn't buy the bot the day he posted the thread.)

Impervious. - May 20, 2015, 7:25 am just to be clear, he didn't scam anyone, y'all were fools for thinking you can beat the odds when gambling ?

get outta here kiddos

get outta here kiddos That's why people should be refunded because the product was described as being being able to do exactly that.

"I will make a blockchain and let the bot run indefinitely and show y'all daily earnings from the bot!"

If that doesn't mean it beats the odds, then I don't know, and I know, it's not the exact words he used.

Autocorrect - May 20, 2015, 7:28 am

If he makes $400,000 a month then why does he care about a $110 refund..?

This is legit as hell. That's not very fair but I suppose every story has two sides.

it means he will post his progress using the bot, he never stated he would beat the odds. (I think?)

People say they double their money gambling A LOT.
Maybe in reality he did make money using the bot, just not as much as he stated.

I'm sorry but if people think they can beat the odds in gambling they shouldn't have passed highschool.

He delivered the product and it worked like it should have. Using martingale 'strategies' to 'earn you money'. It could have earned you money, but seeing as it is still gambling, you're likely to lose $$ (the bot just speeds up the process of you busting)

SprayPaint - May 20, 2015, 7:55 am

I'm hearing a lot of shit about this user, I'm going to look into him and decide if he's worthy of my scamming spree thread.

Geneon - May 20, 2015, 8:08 am

I just "LOL" at the face of every scrub noob that told me shit like "stop trashing his sales thread" when I asked for proof and said that it was impossible to make those earnings.

In your face spk beliebers.

If he's legit, why the fake 0.1 BTC -> 8 BTC? Right.

that's like asking why people fake earnings for e-books.

Sales.Duh.

I've had multiple few day runs on altcoin dicing sites with odds that it shouldn't even be working with for the lulz. It's perfectly possible to 'get lucky'.

FreeAnneFrank - May 28, 2015, 2:38 am

SpK still did not pay me anything and even gave me a neg rep when I tried contacting him meaning he knows about this.For me SpK is a cunt and deserves the worst. He still makes 400k a year doe.

YekiM - May 28, 2015, 2:53 am

Can you please just clarify something, did you purchase the bot BEFORE or AFTER he uploaded the fake proof?

Do you have any proof of the original thread he posted like a screenshot of the offerings and/or the clauses?

I purchased it after he uploaded the fake proof, about 3 days or so before he junked his thread. and yeah I have proof of him telling me that he will refund me

You don't perhaps have the URL to the junked thread and/or a screenshot of the thread?

Yes, ask a moderator to post screenshots of the thread, and the editing times (if the user edited the post, then we can view when you purchased it for authenticity.)

Upon doing this, we will then find that there was an unlawful breach of contract by misrepresenting the product/service in question and you can claim for rescission (both parties return to the point before sale with everything back.).

IF however you bought the product, and are just using this as an excuse to get your money back, then unfortunately it is not refundable.
