Amount: $30 USD Paypal.

Deal Description: So Rice or AKA Don, Asked for a loan, He wanted $30 in paypal so he can transfer to BTC then gamble. He said he will receive the money back by gambling. I sent him through paypal and waited the 2 days he said I had to wait, a week past and haven't got anything back. I tried contacting him but he keeps dragging his excuses. Thats when I knew it was time to take action.

My Opinion: To be honest, I am not worried about losing the money, But would love if he can give it back. BUT UNDERSTAND, for the safety of this community I am just warning the community about this user. I had another person on skype add me and tell me that this user (Rice) was scamming other people aswell. I will be honest with you I have seen one/two scam reports about this guy, But I do like to see the good in someone not the bad, But this user turned his face to showed the bad. I do warn the community not to deal with this user and beware of him. Aswell I did get some information that he is using Paypal verified accounts so he will be giving you money from other people. I do hope I have helped some people and hope some people who have been scammed by this user can stand up and speak freely.

Evidence (PS: Not sure if I'm allowed to post PM's or any of these photo's so please tell me if I can't)

PM me with your Skype, I might be able to help you out. Maybe not replace what you've lost, but make up for it in other ways
