Thread: Boosting Accounts without hacks!

Hammyliu - May 20, 2015, 6:01 am

Hey everyone!

My main is LE and have a smurf that is DMG, but I currently am trying to help some friends rank up but I need a lower rank account. For those that are interested in some boosting, that doesn't involve any hacks, then I am the right person for you.

Looking for ranks that are silver or novas.
I can play up to MG2 and even MGE with ease.

You can turn all the security features for trading and such, just looking to play with lower ranks and boosting my friends that are also stuck in those lower levels.

If you want proof of my ranks, feel free to PM me and I can send you it as I don't have enough posts to embed pictures.

Ranks:
Main - LE
Smurf - DMG

uh, proof?

How do we know you aren't going to hack on our account "other than your word"?

These threads crop up so often I'm losing count ?

I don't know why but I do not believe in all this boosting without hacks :x

I made this thread so that I can boost my friends with the benefit of boosting your accounts in the middle of the process. I know that if the account gets banned for hacking, then my friend's account will be demoted as well.

I am actually Le on my main as you can add me main (Look up Tricksofthetroll on steam and I am the one that says Michael Womack)
I can't post links so I haven't posted a picture of the ranks but I will PM you pics of it if you want.

I also don't find it fun using hacks too in so I play legit

I sent you the picture of the rank of my smurf. Along with the link to my main acc, you can add me so when I can back home I can show you my rank in game. If you don't believe that my rank is real, I can go into a real MM with you and show you.

I keep all my profiles private xD it makes it appear that I am hacking, but if you watch all my demos, there is no sign of hacking what so ever.

I can always take my accounts off of private, I have nothing to hide, other than to deceive the enemy team when they look at my profile.

Not a god yet, but I find it easy from ranks under MGE. Then DMG and LE are when people can aim and spray.

I'm LEM on my main Account with 1,100 hours+.

If someone needs a boost on silver/gold/mg or stuff like that i can offer my service.

As proof i would also have no problem to sign some kind of contract or stuff like that.

Ignore this person, has been really toxic and rude to all users lately.
