Thread: Crypto | Official Group | General & Open Recruitment | Accepting Applicants

zSerity - May 21, 2015, 1:38 pm

A unification of sophisticated individuals who share a keen interest in cryptocurrency, currency exchanging, and helping the community of Hack Forums.

Rather than having a cliché application format where members are bound to just lie, we will simply uphold a YES or NO format.

We will then personally review your profile to confirm the legitimacy of your answers, to ultimately deem you applicable or not.

FAQ

Q: Why Crypto?

A: Crypto is a group containing a plethora of experienced individuals who strive in the cryptocurrency and currency exchanging fields.

Not only will you feel like apart of the family, but you will be able to participate in currently ongoing projects, and further expand your crypto knowledge.

Q: What happens after I post my application?

A: We will review your application within 48 hours, and if we like what we see you will be sent an invite.

Please do not PM me to check your application, as I will be going through all of them.

Q: Can I get friends to vouch for me, or reserve posts?

A: Reserving your post for an application, or having your friend vouch for your application has little to no effect on my decision.

Q: Who can apply?

A: Cryptocurrency enthusiasts, and official exchangers.

We are also looking for talented designers, programmers, and web developers who would like to help with group projects,

Q: Do you accept buy-ins?

A: No we do not, and I doubt we ever will.

If you have any other questions unrelated to your application, please let me know.

Do you have any crypto coin experience? (Y/N): Yes I have used some miners, and I have a small stock of some of the smaller currencies. I also frequently exchange for btc.

Do you have any currency exchanging experience? (Y/N): Yes, I don't offer a main service but I've done deals both on and off HF.

Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development? (Y/N): Yes, I'm a software developer, mostly .net. I have a small amount of experience with websites, databases, and dealing with both front and back end work.

Do you have a notable amount of posts in the crypto coin section, or the currency exchanging section? (Y/N): No, I usually do most of my currency deals off HF, but thats been changing for me recently!

Are you willing to be active within the SF, and put in an effort to contribute? (Y/N): Absolutely! This group looks really great and I'm looking forward to contributing as much as I can.

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects? (Y/N): 100% This is one of the only groups I've applied for so far so it will have all of my dedication.

Looking forward to the rest of this recruitment phase, lots of good applications. You'll find I try my best to be a HQ member, and contribute to help others as often as I can. I'm very tired of seeing all the group buy ins, the drama, and the general nonsense that most HF groups have devolved into.

Good luck to everyone who applies!

Do you have any crypto coin experience?(Y/N):

Yes, I have a pretty good amount of knowledge on bitcoin but not many other crypto currencies. I have done a few research papers on bitcoin and that was my main source of learning about it.

Do you have any currency exchanging experience? (Y/N):

Yes, I have done a few deals in the currency exchange and all have gone smoothly.

Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development? (Y/N):

Kinda, I can do web design and that's it, I also don't consider myself a pro at it at all.

Do you have a notable amount of posts in the crypto coin section, or the currency exchanging section? (Y/N):

Not many, Most of my deals in the currency exchange are done all by PM so I don't post much in it.

Are you willing to be active within the SF, and put in an effort to contribute? (Y/N):

Yes, I have been becoming more active as the days go on in HF all around.

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects? (Y/N):

Yes, I will participate in group projects that I fit the criteria of expertise in, and I will try my best to maintain a drama free posting style both in and out of HF.

Do you have any crypto coin experience? (Y/N): Yes, I invested very early into DarkCoin after looking at it's stats and made a total of 700$ profit. Sad that I wasn't able to invest more. At the moment I am holding all my money on BitCoin and waiting for a new Crypto Currency to rise so I can invest into it.

Do you have any currency exchanging experience? (Y/N): Well, I exchanged with a lot of exchangers, but I don't have a own exchange thread. If I would get lucky and be Ub3r one day or non-Ub3rs are allowed to start their own exchange services I will be the the first to create a own exchange service as I can exchange into almost every known crypto and just love how awesome crypto currencies are.

Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development? (Y/N): I don't have any knowledge about designing but I am looking to learn more about it as my attempts on Photoshop are just sad. I know some Objective C but mainly do Reverse Engineering on iOS devices. I can send you a few articles written about me if you want :). I am learning PHP at the moment but I wouldn't say I am good yet.

Do you have a notable amount of posts in the crypto coin section, or the currency exchanging section? (Y/N): No not really, as I usually read and learn, but I am looking forward to starting Tutorial Threads, help desks, and maybe a own exchange service soon :D

Are you willing to be active within the SF, and put in an effort to contribute? (Y/N): Yes I will. I will contribute a lot and will do some give aways internly, but also a few give aways in the name of Crypto.

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects? (Y/N): Yes. Who wouldn't want to maintain a drama free environment? I will try my best to :) I will participate in group projects as much as I can as I love working in groups.

Yes. I think I have rather a lot of this, I go to a 6th form college for game design in my home city thats sponsored by Sony and the likes so I have a good understanding of languages used in game engines (mostly C#). I know php and a small amount of js. You can see this on my Omnicoin gambling site (near the top of the OMC section) and have also worked with VB6 and .net languages respectively. I by no means claim to be the best programmer but I know what I know and am open to learning new things.

[img]http://i.ipixls.net/YtgkEcs.png[/img]

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects? (Y/N):
It Depends - I tend to only join in with group projects if I feel like I can offer something substantial to them but if not I will still happily act as an advisor for things that people need help with (where I am able). I will however strive to maintain a drama free environment as drama is never good for any one individual.

PS. HTML is not a programming language nor is it a type of programming, It is a markup language. Clue is in the name Hyper Text Markup Language. It makes text look pretty, thats it.

I am not going to use any special format because I don't feel those are needed for this one.

My name is Normon, or Autononymous. I am a 16 year old internet forensics investigator. I have always had interest in cryptocurrency and even tried to run my own before, I also experiment with PHP and work with various projects. I am not near as experienced in coding as some of the users of HF, but I would love to help you guys out.

Do you have any crypto coin experience? (Y/N): Yes! Plenty! I used to mine Litecoin, Dogecoin and Feathercoin as well as having a large amount of Bitcoin in which I exchange a lot. I used to gamble on Bitcoin dice sites for fun and make a lot of profit! I'm also 3p1c as I had a collection of Omnicoin which I saved up.

Do you have any currency exchanging experience? (Y/N): Yes! As I said, I constantly need to do exchanges from Paypal to Bitcoin or Bitcoin to Paypal if I want to do anything fun.

Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development? (Y/N): Yes, I am proficient in many programming languages such as C++, C#, VB, Python, DuckyScript(For my USB Rubber Ducky :D) and some other low level languages that I can't currently think of right now. I am also experienced in web design (HTML, CSS, JS, JQuery, PHP, SQL). I'm currently studying Computer Science as a GCSE in my secondary school so I'm always interested in learning new languages.

Do you have a notable amount of posts in the crypto coin section, or the currency exchanging section? (Y/N): Yes, I would say I have a decent amount of posts in the exchange section although I normally just meet exchangers and keep them in contact over Skype instead of cluttering the exchange section, I don't post in the crypto coin section often but I do tend to lurk.

Are you willing to be active within the SF, and put in an effort to contribute? (Y/N): Yes! I will definitely be willing to stay active in the subforum and definitely put in effort to contribute to it.

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects? (Y/N): Of course, I'm an extremely chill person that still likes to get work done, especially in group projects!

Do you have any crypto coin experience? (Y/N): No, but I am willing to learn.

Do you have any currency exchanging experience? (Y/N): Yeah, I have exchanged before.

Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development? (Y/N): I design and program professionally, I'm in the Gaming Industry, i'll leave it there or I might get in trouble. I also have experience developing websites, I've created all of my projects and their websites.

Do you have a notable amount of posts in the crypto coin section, or the currency exchanging section? (Y/N): No, but I am willing to post in there to get noticed.

Are you willing to be active within the SF, and put in an effort to contribute? (Y/N): Of Course, I will continue to give free graphics, design, coding and other work to other group members :)

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects? (Y/N): Yes, I don't like Drama.

Thanks for reading my application.

Do you have any crypto coin experience? (Y/N):
I do, albeit it's probably minimal compared to many on the OMC team and such. I was around when the coin first started and learned the basics and will be able to help with that. Setting up rigs, mining pools and such.

Do you have any currency exchanging experience? (Y/N):
I've exchanged currencies a few times and MM for a few people but I don't have any long term plans within the section. It's a tough game to get into and one I'm not really focused on right now - though I'm always happy to help people out with MM and such.

Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development? (Y/N):
I'm not a programmer or web developer, I won't lie. I'm more of a thinker and leader than an actual worker in this area. I have many projects I've always wanted to setup, areas I've wanted to work in but never found a partner. In terms of design I have some experience here and would say I'm a little better than average but again I wouldn't be happy showing my work off to everyone. It's just things I have taught myself.

I'm hoping to build this number up and have a project I want to work on with someone but the section is rather quiet recently.

Are you willing to be active within the SF, and put in an effort to contribute? (Y/N):
Yes. I'm willing to dedicate myself and help wherever I can.

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects? (Y/N):
Yes, drama-free is what I love. Having a relaxed but professional environment is where I work best and it's nice to see a group trying to promote this. I hope I can be apart of the family.

Do you have any crypto coin experience?:

Yes of course! ?

I mostly work with Bitcoins, buy/sell stuff. :)

I also ran a Faucet once for quite a while. ^_^

I had some nice ideas to get it unique, but other plans got in the way. :)

Currently I also run my own CryptoCoin called Nodecoin, I plan to implement it into my current projects. :)

Nodecoin. <3

Do you have any currency exchanging experience?:

Yes I do. I have exchanged I guess a few hundred dollars here on HF. ?

I used to exchange on other sites like LocalBitcoins before, but currently I don't them. :)

Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development?:

Yes I do too. ?

I'm currently visiting a university for my Bachelor of Science in Programming.

I wrote alot of Websites and Programms already, all stored with the code (100% by me) if you're interested I can show some. :)

Of course I'll offer my skills to the group :)

Languages I work with:

Do you have a notable amount of posts in the crypto coin section, or the currency exchanging section?:

Well I don't know what you would call notable, but I guess exchanging a hundred+ dollars here on HF is atleast a beginning. ^_^

I'll probably get more posts in the Crypto Section soon, since I have plans with my own Crypto Coin on my current (in progress) website. :)

Are you willing to be active within the SF, and put in an effort to contribute?:

Yes of course, that's what I'm looking for!

New tasks and challenges. ?

I can't wait to contribute to the group and get to know everybody. ?

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects?:

Drama isn't my thing anyway. ;)

I'd love to participate in group projects. :)

Do you have any crypto coin experience? (Y/N): Yes, I've had a max of 41 coins at any given time, I've also invested heavily (5k$ usd worth of btc) into LTC in the past but not much into other altcoins. I was a OMC user back when it was initially developed but haven't had any in a while.

Do you have any currency exchanging experience? (Y/N): Made over 10k exchanging in PROFIT since feb 2014. Always been an active exchanger, and have a lot of market knowledge. Around 70% of that profit is from when the value per btc was 500-650$ USD.

Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development? (Y/N): Do you have experience with designing, programming, or web development? (Y/N): No lol. I am into crypto coins, I don't code or anything related to coding.

Do you have a notable amount of posts in the crypto coin section, or the currency exchanging section? (Y/N): I browse those 2 sections literally the most on HF, I don't post a lot in any section I'm more of a lurker posting when needed. But yes, in reletivity I'm active in CE. I've exchanged with nearly every member of your group I've seen lol.

Are you willing to be active within the SF, and put in an effort to contribute? (Y/N): Yes, I'll be active, do help desks and wear userbar.

Are you willing to maintain a drama free environment, and participate in group projects? (Y/N): Yes. I didn't apply because Aaron was leader but am now that he's gone. Not to mention I have a lot of friends in the group lol. I'll participate in all group projects actively.

zSerity - May 30, 2015, 5:02 pm

Recruitment is now closed, I'll be going through applications soon.

Expect some group projects to also start rolling out soon
